Freighter Pounded Ashore During Gale Which Struck Coast

Solo on Rocks Near Vancouver; Small Ships Pile Up Here

The first gale of the autumn roared out of the southeast last night, sending the big Norwegian motorship Solo hard aground 40 miles north of Vancouver and piling up several small boats at Oak Bay and causing other minor damage in Greater Victoria to trees, fences and wires.

Ss. Salvage King left her berth in the Inner Harbor early this morning to go to the aid of the Solo, a 4,402-ton freighter, with a crew of 27 men, which was ashore on Thormanby Island.

The 310-foot freighter, which cleared from Vancouver last night for Powell River, 90 miles north, reported that she struck at 2.10 this morning while a southeast gale was blowing and a driving rain made visibility almost impossible.

TAKING WATER

First reports said she was "badly damaged," but later advice indicated she was in no immediate danger, although she was taking water in No. 2 hold, forward. Pumps were working and were holding the water down.

The gale was first felt in Victoria late yesterday afternoon. It followed a drizzle of rain. It increased in velocity and blew its hardest around midnight, blowing at 35 miles an hour and in gusts at 45 miles. Rain fell heavily during the night.

In Oak Bay and Gonzales Bay two small yachts, two speed boats and two ketches and a number of row boats pulled away from their moorings and their docks and were driven ashore. Damage, however, was small, and the owners were at work at daylight freeing them.

All the yachts at the Yacht Club moorings in Cadboro Bay escaped the storm.

Baltimore Has $300,000 Fire

Seven Big Buildings Burn; Flames Rise 100 Feet As Brigades Fight

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Baltimore's largest public amusement park was destroyed by flames today.

Only one building, the dance hall, in the area covering several city blocks was saved as a stiff breeze swept 100-foot-high tongues of flame from one wooden structure to another. J. J. Carlin, park owner, would estimate damage only at "well over $300,000."

Carlin said it was not covered by insurance.

Hundreds of firemen called by 10 alarms fought for more than two hours before bringing the blaze under control.

Origin of the blaze, believed to have started in the arena, was not determined immediately.

Seven large structures were destroyed in the first hour.

New Zealand Pact Extended

Canada's Trade Treaty Runs Year; Australia Pact Revised

OTTAWA (CP)—Extension of the Canadian-New Zealand trade agreement for one year and some revisions of the existing trade agreement with Australia will be covered in a statement to be made public late today by Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP-Reuters)—Finance Minister Walter Nash today announced New Zealand's trade treaty with Canada had been extended for one year. He said Canada had made several concessions for New Zealand exports, including lamb.

The Finance Minister added the New Zealand government considered the terms of the extension "very satisfactory."

In July, 1936, it was announced the treaty had been renewed until today. At that time, however, Mr. Nash said New Zealand in the meantime would try to secure a revision in favor of the southern Dominion. He said New Zealand's exports for the 1935-36 year were only $500,000 while imports from Canada totaled about $2,000,000.

Victoria Firm Gets Contract

OTTAWA (CP)—Contracts were awarded today by the Department of Public Works totaling more than $400,000.

China Throwing 200,000 More Men Into North Battle

With Japanese Shanghai Line Stalled, Defenders Rush Troops to Other Front

SHANGHAI (AP)—Two hundred thousand more Chinese Communists were ordered to the north China front Thursday to stem the relentless advance of the Japanese army, as Chinese outside Shanghai continued to hold their positions and showed no signs of weakening.

Communist forces in Kiangsi province were mustered to join nationalist troops, their old enemies, as the Japanese advanced through the eastern Hopei province almost to the border of Shantung province, which has felt only light, infrequent attacks from armies from the land of the Rising Sun.

The Japanese assaulted the Chinese Shanghai line on a 25-mile front Thursday all the way from the Chapai sector just north of the International Settlement to Liuhong and Lotien. The concerted attack began shortly after dawn Wednesday and, except for a brief early Thursday morning lull, continued with unabated fury.

Chinese asserted their lines had not budged a foot under the tremendous pressure. The Japanese claimed to have pushed back the Chinese line only slightly in Chapai and at the northwestern flank around Lotien and Liuhong. Japanese admitted they had been unable to break the desperate resistance at Kiangwan, a few miles north of Shanghai.

MUSSOLINI IS BACK IN ROME

Shanghai Shell Hurts Britisher

SHANGHAI (AP)—A corporal of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers was slightly wounded Thursday when a six-inch shell, believed to be from a Japanese warship, crashed through a house on north Shensi Road used as a post by the British forces stationed near the North Station.

China Buying British Planes

LONDON (AP)—The Air Ministry disclosed today the government had sanctioned officially the sale of aircraft to the Chinese government.

The Gloster Aircraft Company already has delivered an unspecified number of military planes and holds permits to export additional craft. The permission to sell the planes was given before the outbreak of fighting with Japan, an Air Ministry official said, but there was no indication the permit would be canceled.

The disclosure created surprise since all British aircraft companies are working overtime to fill the needs of government's air reorganization programme. Imperial Airways recently placed orders for planes abroad.

The planes were understood to be single-seater fighters capable of a speed of 250 miles per hour and armed with four machine guns. The London Evening News said "certain independent British pilots may go with them to fly them as mercenaries."

Huge Crowd On Hand to Greet Roosevelt On First Visit to Western Capital

Tot Gets Kiss From President

Stops His Car to Greet Little Girl Among Cheering Children

Victoria schoolchildren had a major part in welcoming President Roosevelt on his good-neighbor visit to Lieutenant-Governor Eric W. Hamber today.

Although the weather compelled the school board to cancel its original plan of having the children line the President's way along Rockland Avenue to Government House, most of them turned out of their own accord and put on a fine spontaneous welcome.

The most touching feature of the schools' tribute to the visiting Chief Executive happened outside the gates of Government House.

Fourteen little flower girls, picked from grade one of each of the schools of the city, Esquimalt and Oak Bay, lined the road on either side of the gate. They wore multi-colored shepherdess costumes.

As the car bearing President Roosevelt and the Lieutenant-Governor reached the gate one little girl, seven-year-old Lorraine Roberts of the Willows School, stepped shyly forward. The President ordered the car stopped, leaned forward, picked the little girl up in his arms, then kissed her on the cheek as he accepted the buttonhole which

Secretary Hull To Visit Ottawa

Head of U.S. State Department to Be Lord Tweedsmuir's Guest October 20

OTTAWA (CP)—The Governor-General's secretary announced Secretary of State Cordell Hull of the United States and Mrs. Hull will visit Ottawa October 20 for a stay at Government House.

The announcement said Mr. and Mrs. Hull would be guests of Lord and Lady Tweedsmuir, and would return the visit paid Washington last spring by Prime Minister King.

It added that while he was in Canada Mr. Hull would receive an honorary degree of doctor of laws from the University of Toronto.

Greeting From B.C. Premier

Government Leader Extends Welcome to President Roosevelt

Over the air last night, in course of a radio address, Premier Pattullo extended a warm welcome to President Roosevelt for his visit today to British Columbia.

Mentioning that the President is accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and two of their grandchildren, he said:

"We deeply appreciate this touch of intimacy.

"The President's visit," he continued, "is indicative of the friendly feeling of the people of the United States for the Dominion of Canada and the invitation which was extended to the President to visit British Columbia is likewise indicative of the feeling of the people of Canada for the people of the United States.

"In juxtaposition our peoples are largely of the same stock and race with a common heritage and common ideals. The United States is necessarily interested in the welfare of Canada and Canada is necessarily interested in the welfare of the United States. VANCOUVER (CP)—A net profit for 1937 of $56,000 was on the books of the Vancouver Exhibition Association today.

BLUE, WITH SABLES

The chateleine of the White House and First Lady of the United States, tall and greying, wore Eleanor blue, her favorite shade with sables, a small blue hat with pom-pom and brown shoes. She seemed delighted with her reception, and talked animatedly with Mrs. Hamber as they walked to a Government House limousine with Premier Pattullo. In her car Mrs. Roosevelt received the wives of the City Council members. They were presented to her by Hon. John Hart.

President Roosevelt was helped from his chair to the top of the gangplank, but walked down alone holding the sides. As commander-in-chief of the United States, he was piped over the side.

Flashlights popped by the dozen, photographers crowded his car. Mr. Roosevelt smiled pleasantly at them all. In 10 minutes he was on his way to Government House, more than 40 cars following him.

FREDERICTON, N.B. (CP)—New Brunswick schools will not open until October 12, due to infantile paralysis, it was announced today. Three newly-diagnosed cases in Saint John raised the total in the province to 112.

The greatest crowd that has assembled in Victoria for a decade cheered Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President of the United States of America and Mrs. Roosevelt as they drove through Victoria today along streets lined with flags and bunting, on their way to luncheon at Government House with the Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia and Mrs. Hamber.

Victoria has seldom displayed such enthusiasm for any distinguished visitor. Long before U.S.S. Phelps, which carried the President and his party hove in sight, crowds were lining the Dallas Road waterfront. Every side street was choked with cars, many of them flying flags. Houses along the route of procession were decorated.

As the noon boom boomed out, the Phelps, with her escort, U.S.S. Porter, carrying newspapermen, was seen in the distance, steaming at full speed towards Victoria. The Canadian destroyers Skeena and Fraser accompanied the foreign warships, having met them at the international boundary.

The President left Seattle in a pelting rain. Half way across the weather cleared and half an hour before he reached Victoria the rain stopped, and the skies cleared slightly. But the rain had not lessened the crowds, or dampened their enthusiasm, for they carried umbrellas and rugs and wore raincoats and rubbers.

GUN SALUTE

The first greeting to the President's ship was from the liner President Grant, just backing away from Victoria. The Phelps replied with three toots. A fleet of small boats saluted with flags. A few minutes later a gun salute rang out from the Phelps, formally greeting the Dominion of Canada. Following this came a 21-gun salute from Work Point Barracks to the United States and Canada's distinguished visitor.

President Roosevelt was first sighted seated on the destroyer's deck. He was smoking a cigarette and wore a grey fedora and dark overcoat. A crowd on the dock cheered him and President Roosevelt flashed his famous smile and raised his hat.

Around him were his grandchildren, "Sis" and "Buz" Dail; his daughter, Mrs. John Boettiger, his son, James Roosevelt, and his wife, and his son-in-law, John Boettiger.

A few minutes later Mrs. Roosevelt appeared and smiled broadly when the crowd of officials on the dock applauded her.

LEAGUE SETS TEST ON SPAIN FOR ITALY

effective within one month's time, the signatories of the non-intervention agreement are "invited to envisage" a return to a policy based on international law.

WAR MATERIALS

This was interpreted by committee members to mean complete abandonment of the non-intervention policy, enabling the Spanish government to obtain war materials wherever it wished. The French were reported to have given the Spanish delegation assurances the frontier would be opened in the event volunteers were not withdrawn.

The one-month delay was said to have been provided to enable Great Britain and France to carry on negotiations with Italy during which they hope to persuade Mussolini to withdraw his troops. The resolution must be submitted to the League Assembly for adoption before it becomes effective. This step will probably be taken Saturday.

forward to the day when there shall be a highway from Alaska traversing the North American and South American continents to Patagonia.

The North American continent, he said, was fortunately placed, but must not think its place was secure. "External conditions have their reflex in internal conditions in America. As no man can live to himself alone, so also can no nation," he said.

"As part of the British Empire, with which Canada stands in indissoluble relationship, we are a link in the chain of friendship between the British Empire and the United States of America.

"On behalf of the people of British Columbia I extend the most cordial greetings and felicitations to President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt, the members of their family and all other members of the President's party. We trust their visit here will be of the most enjoyable character, and I wish to assure the President that the people of British Columbia welcome him."

British Protest Raids In China

Talk of Boycott on Japanese Trade Raises Growing Issue

LONDON (CP)—While the situation in the Far East becomes more menacing, Japanese bombing of open towns threatens to raise a first class issue in Great Britain. Every new bombing raid swells the tide of public indignation and horror.

Campaigns to boycott the trade of Japan increase in intensity. Fending international action, consumers are urged not to buy Japanese goods. Sympathetic shopkeepers may secure window cards proclaiming to the world

Robberies Today In Manitoba Towns

they do not sell Japanese products.

The National Council of Labor, supreme co-ordinating authority of the British Labor and Trades Unions movements, demands an international embargo. Rt. Hon. Clement Attlee, on behalf of the Labor opposition, it is reported, intends to demand that Parliament meet to consider Japan's "gross infringement of international treaty obligations."

MINISTERS BUSY

The ministers, who are now busily engaged on the sessional programme, are deeply concerned over the Far East and over the insistent demands for action more effective than protests.

On the other hand, there is the record of the League of Nations' tragic failure to prevent the Italian conquest of Ethiopia. It was then shown that unless economic sanctions are imposed swiftly and thoroughly, they are powerless to prevent aggression. So far, it is learned, the British government has taken no overt step towards an international trade boycott. But the position is under careful scrutiny.

FRENCH ACTION

PARIS (CP-Havas)—The campaign for an anti-Japanese boycott spread to France today.

Angered by repeated Japanese bombardments of civilian centres in China, the French group of the Universal Committee for Peace appealed to all its branches to support a boycott of Japanese goods.

NEW ZEALAND ATTITUDE
WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP-Reuters)—Prime Minister Michael Savage announced today the New Zealand government does not approve the action of dockworkers in threatening to boycott Japanese goods and shipping.

"There is only one body in a position of authority and that is the government," the Labor Premier declared. "We are not going to have five or six organizations telling us which countries we are going to trade with."

Following representations by waterside workers against the Japanese bombings in China, the Auckland labor organization instructed its members to refuse to handle exports for Japan which would be usable for war purposes. Similar action was then taken in Dunedin and Lyttelton.

IN NEW SOUTH WALES

SYDNEY, Australia (CP-Reuters)—The Labor Council, governing body of New South Wales trades unions, today ordered a boycott on Japanese goods as a protest against the bombing of civilian populations in China.

Sinking of Junks Is Investigated

British Officials at Hong-kong Inquire into Japanese Attacks

LONDON (CP)—British naval authorities at Hong-kong today ordered an inquiry into the sinking of Chinese junks by Japanese destroyers. Sinking of the junks, which was denied in Tokyo, has been officially reported to Hongkong authorities by the German ship Scharnhorst. The Scharnhorst rescued a couple of the survivors.

One of the objects of the inquiry is to determine whether British interests are affected and whether any persons entitled to British protection suffered injury. The junks enjoy a form of limited registry from Hong-kong, which gives them certain rights, but does not entitle them to the full protection of the British flag. They were attacked on the high seas in the neighborhood of Hongkong.

Joseph George Held For Hearing

MERRITT, B.C. The Clearwater Reserve Indian was arrested on information laid by his 55-year-old mother-in-law.

He was scheduled to appear for preliminary hearing today.

Thugs Get Loot In Fork River and Strathclair; Fail at Sifton

WINNIPEG (CP)—Bandits swooped down on three western Manitoba towns today and escaped with $9,500 in cash, cheques and bonds, Royal Canadian Mounted police reported here.

Operating under cover of a sleet-laden sky in their early morning raid, thieves took $8,000 in bonds and cash from the municipal office at Fork River, 180 miles northwest of here.

Then they failed in an attempt to burglarize the Canadian National Railways office at Sifton, 10 miles south of Fork River. The final haul was made at Strathclair, 150 miles west of Winnipeg, where $1,500 in cash and cheques was taken from the municipal office after robbers had awakened citizens by blowing open the office safe.

Alberta Is To Seek Court Test

Government Proposes Federal Disallowance Be Carried to Privy Council

EDMONTON (CP)—Reference to the courts on the right of federal disallowance of the legislation of any province developed as a possibility today from Wednesday's sitting of the Alberta Legislature.

After indicating the government's intention to introduce a bill amending and consolidating the Credit of Alberta Regulations Act, one of three bills recently disallowed, Hon. Lucien Maynard, Minister of Municipal Affairs, disclosed the intention respecting the disallowance test.

"It is the intention of the government to negotiate with the federal authorities with the object of referring the question of the right of disallowance of provincial legislation, not only on Alberta legislation, but also of all legislation of all other provinces, to the Supreme Court of Canada and, if necessary, to the Privy Council," the minister said.

"We are convinced," he added, "that the decision of the Privy Council will uphold the contention I have advanced, namely, that the Dominion Government has no longer the right to disallow any provincial legislation."

Mr. Maynard was speaking in the debate on a resolution denying federal right of disallowance and expressing determination to implement three bills disallowed. The resolution was still before the House at adjournment.

The bill amending and consolidating the Credit of Alberta Regulations Act, said Mr. Maynard, was drafted to remove some "objectionable features" of the previous bill which provided for licensing of bank managers and bank employees and creation of one or more local credit directors.

she offered him. Another little girl presented a button hole to His Honor.

The same thing happened as the car bearing Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Hamber reached the gate. It was Patricia Sparks of Monterey School who handed a bouquet to the First Lady of the United States.

As well as the 14 six and seven-year-old flower girls there were eight boys in beekeepers' costumes and four more dressed as halberdiers, who presented their pikes and halberds as the cars entered the grounds of Government House. The boys were from the Junior High School. Fifty cadets from Oakland School, in white and navy blue uniforms, formed a guard of honor in the roadway where the cars turned from Rockland Avenue into Government House.

FLORAL GATE OPENED

There was another charming little ceremony on the drive up Rockland.

At the corner of Linden Avenue the technical staff of Victoria High School had erected a great gate covered with ferns and flowers, spelling out the word "welcome." As the first car of the parade approached the gate was swung open.

Boy Scouts and Girl Guides lined the sides of Rockland on either side of Linden. From that point up to the gates of Government House the school children were crowded on every point of vantage many perched on fences and walls, and all waving flags.

The President and his party moved along the avenue between a continuous row of United States, British and Canadian flags, and red, white and blue streamers waved in the hands of enthusiastically cheering boys and girls.

CANDIDATES IN ONTARIO 266

Two Women Among Groups
Nominated For October 6
General Election

TORONTO (CP)—Ontario's 20th general election campaign, getting up steam over a period of weeks, roared into the stretch today with 266 candidates of 16 political persuasions ready to try their luck at the polls October 6. More than 500,000 voters are expected to cast ballots in 90 constituencies that day.

As a result of the official nominations yesterday, the Liberal candidates led by Premier Mitchell Hepburn total 86, compared with 89 for the Conservative forces of Hon. Earl Rowe. Also candidates regarded as friendly to the government are running in four constituencies uncontested by the Liberals.

In all but one riding Conservative candidates were nominated and in that single exception—Wellington South—ran Lieut. Colonel George A. Drew, former Conservative organizer who broke with Mr. Rowe and sided with Premier Hepburn on the Committee for Industrial Organization issue, was named. Lieut. Colonel Drew is running as an Independent Conservative.

Only the old parties nominated enough candidates to win a majority of seats in the next Legislature, but the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation named 37, including the provincial leader, John Mitchell, and an entirely new group under the heading of Socialist-Labor put up 11 candidates.

In addition are eight Independents, eight Independent Liberals, six Farmer-Laborites, five Laborites, five Independent Conservatives, three Liberal-Progressives, two C.C.F.-Labor men, one Labor-Progressive, one Independent dent-Laborite, one Social Credit, one United Farmer and one Communist.

The last general election had 263 candidates—three fewer than this time—but it had more women aspirants. All C.C.F. and all unsuccessful, six women contested seats in 1934. Yesterday only two were nominated—Mrs. Jean Laing, Labor, in Toronto St. George, and Mrs. E. A. Miles, C.C.F., in Fort William.

Japan Defends Nanking Raids

Answer Made to U.S. Protest on Bombing of Chinese Capital

TOKIO (AP)—The Japanese government defends as strategically necessary the aerial bombing of Nanking, which drew protests from world governments, including Great Britain and the United States.

The Japanese point of view was contained in a reply made public Thursday to the formal United States protest of September 22, transmitted after oral representations against Japan's announced intentions of subjecting the Chinese capital to a mass aerial bombardment.

The Japanese government added in its reply:

"We hope for the co-operation of your government."

The note was delivered to the United States Embassy written in Japanese. It said that Nanking, "unlike any other city in China, is a strongly fortified city. It is the base of China's military operations and it is necessary for Japan's purposes to bomb military organs and establishments in and out of the city."

"Japanese bombing is only directed at those military organs and has not the intention to cause damage to noncombatants."

Before bombing, Japan warned Chinese noncombatants.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Official United States circles received without surprise the Japanese reply to Secretary of State Cordell Hull's protest against the bombing of Chinese noncombatants.

Although no formal comment was forthcoming immediately, some disappointment was known to be felt over the lack of any specific guarantee by Japan to halt such air raids.

Officials refused to indicate whether some further United States diplomatic action might be contemplated.

Informed circles expressed the view the Japanese rejoinder to this protest hardly could be regarded as satisfactory. In effect it asked this government to consent to the right of Japan to dictate the movements of United States diplomats in China.

VANCOUVER (CP)—John D. Anderson was removed to a hospital with a broken nose and a possible fracture of the skull, suffered when he was struck by an automobile while stepping from a street car early today.

His condition was reported fair.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police today sought four men who assaulted and attempted to rob S. Uyematsu as he was about to enter his home Wednesday night. Uyematsu said the men struggled with him for a while and then disappeared.

Mankind's "Other Side"

THERE ARE ON DISPLAY IN EUROPE right now two exhibits which seem to sum up the tragic contradiction in the soul of modern man as nothing else could.

One of them is to be seen in Spain, where bombs crash into crowded city streets, tanks lumber across broken fields spitting flame and destruction, and men shoot their brother men by the hundreds because they cannot agree on the way society is to be run.

The other is on view at the great Paris Exposition, where there is a magnificent display of man's scientific achievements—his reading of the riddle of the stars, his conquests over disease, his brilliant reconstruction of his race's history, his harnessing of nature to do his will.

Vera Micheles Dean, editor of the weekly bulletin of the Foreign Policy Association, makes this comment on these two exhibits: "Undismayed by knowledge of his own mortality and the possible finiteness of the universe, the scientist, on a battlefield which spans the world, strives not only to preserve life but enrich it. Yet outside his laboratory, humanity, with growing indifference, accepts the deliberate increase in the chances of death inflicted by modern warfare."

It is a dismaying and an incomprehensible thing, this two-sidedness of man. The genius that conquers a world-old plague is the same genius that sends up airplanes to drop bombs on schoolrooms; the restless drive for accomplishment which can weigh, analyze and chart the movements of a star millions of light years away is the same force that divides a nation into warring camps and puts brother at the throat of brother.

The fact that human nature contains these contradictions—that man, who is made "a little lower than the angels" and can rise to dazzling heights of self-abnegation and mastery, also contains black spirits of cruelty and hatred and can be blind and destructive in his folly—this is not news. The race has always had a dual personality, a mingling of good and evil. But it is only in this modern world that the contrast between humanity's best efforts and its worst efforts has become so startling.

For our recent advances in the physical sciences have enormously increased our powers—for evil as well as for good. If a good man can do more to help the world now than ever before, because infinitely more efficient tools are in his hands, a bad man can do more to hurt it. Attila himself, with his horde of savage marauders, could not inflict destruction and misery on a given territory as quickly and completely as can an aviation corps major with a couple of flights of bombing planes.

In this fact lies the greatest of our problems. The echoes of our actions carry farther than they used to. More than ever before, we are required to master ourselves, to control the brute that is in us, and to give permanent ascendancy to those forces in human nature which seek to lead us toward the stars.

Motherhood Toll Cut

DOCTORS HAVE BEEN WAGING A SUCCESSFUL battle against this continent's formerly notoriously high childbirth deathrate, figures compiled by Metropolitan Life Insurance statisticians indicate. Deaths of mothers bearing children have been cut since 1929 from 70 per 10,000 births to around 58 per 10,000.

Improvement in medical standards, spreading of intensive nursing before, during and after childbirth, and hospital aid in outlying districts are among the factors to which the improvement is attributed by the experts.

Particularly due to these improvements is the decrease in death from various diseases often associated with childbirth. Deaths from puerperal albuminuria and eclampsia have been cut more than one-third since 1930, while fatalities from puerperal septicemia, another maternal disease with a high mortality rate, have declined at least 10 per cent. The improvement, the report concludes, is the "direct result of the campaign against maternal mortality." It shows what we can do in the field of public health when we have the will to do it.

Arizona's Sky Island

NOTHING MORE PURELY FASCINATING has appeared in the news of late than the account of Dr. Harold E. Anthony's expedition to the "island in the sky," down Grand Canyon way. Dr. Anthony has reached the top of a rock plateau which seems to have been cut off from the rest of the country some 10,000 or 20,000 years ago; since the natural forces there have had all those millenniums to develop uninfluenced by the currents of ordinary life, there is a fair chance that some strange and extraordinarily interesting finds will be made.

Conan Doyle once played with just such an idea, and in "The Lost World" showed dinosaurs surviving down to the 20th century on a sky island in South America. No such bridging of the aeons is to be expected on this Arizona plateau, of course; yet no one who enjoyed Doyle's imaginative book can fail to feel a thrill of interest at the accounts of Dr. Anthony's exploration of this strangely isolated bit of territory.

School Traffic Control

ONE OF THOSE MANY ACTS FOR THE benefit of the community which service clubs unostentatiously perform is being quietly done in Victoria under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club and is worthy of commendation. It is that of teaching traffic control to young pupils of grade schools and generally carrying on a campaign for traffic safety among schoolchildren in Victoria. The Victoria campaign is part of a national campaign organized by the Kiwanis Club. Started last April it has proved popular and effective, and it is hoped soon that it will be operating at every school in Victoria where there is traffic danger.

Pupils of the seventh and eighth grades are trained as young traffic policemen. The Sam Browne belt, the fleecy-lined coats, storm hats and staffs carrying the stop and go banner which the Kiwanis Club provides add dignity to the office and the honor is eagerly sought. As the children go and as they leave school, the young traffic policemen may be seen discharging their duties with pride and efficiency. The police department, school board and teachers have co-operated. Standing at a vantage point with the stop banner well displayed the boy policeman halts oncoming motor traffic while children grouped on the sidewalk, awaiting the word to go, are permitted to cross in safety. The boys on bicycles are also guided.

Besides assuring safety for the students, it lifts a weight of anxiety from motorists who before, even though exercising the greatest care, faced the danger of hitting some of the many straggling children who, as is the manner of children when not directed, might at any moment dash into the road without a glance to the right or left, and into an oncoming car. The continued co-operation with the Kiwanis Club in this commendable service is much to be desired.

Raffles and Gambling

THERE WILL BE ENDORSEMENT from many quarters of the resolution against raffles and lotteries passed by the provincial convention of the W.C.T.U. in Vancouver. Contradictory distinction of the Civil Code, frequently the subject of considerable wonderment, is its ruling that a raffle under some circumstances is moral or legal. Under other circumstances it becomes a crime. If the raffle is for a church or charity and under a certain amount it finds favor with the law. If it is a commercial raffle it becomes a crime.

The principle of a raffle is, of course, the same in each instance. The spirit of a gamble is there whether it be for a flower pot or a fortune. The amount of the prize has little to do with the argument. The first bicycle of a schoolboy often means more to him than the first yacht to a millionaire.

There are many who have so frequently been importuned recently to purchase raffle tickets for articles for which they had no use, for organizations they were not interested in, who will agree with the W.C.T.U. that raffles should go entirely or that churches least of all should take advantage of the gambling spirit to profit by them.

Notes

An eastern reformatory provides radios for the cells. The new idea of making punishment fit crime.

When we count the crumpled motor car fenders we have doubt as to how many of us are fit to be trusted with freedom.

Thomas Wolfe, the novelist, has finished an 800,000-word manuscript. It seems he did have time for a full-length novel.

Crowning wonder of Germany's synthetic research is the process of taking the shirt off a man's back and making a deficit of it.

Another war veteran, thought dead 20 years, has showed up in the east. Something like the hatchet Europe thought it had buried in 1918.

A California judge rules he has no jurisdiction over Mexican marriages. This follows the old U.S. principle of non-interference in guerilla warfare.

When a man succeeds these days, the thing for him to do seems to be to hunt up fine ancestors. A fine effect seems to justify assuming a fine cause.

Formula for longevity, after reading those scientific journals, seems to be to live cleanly, do all things in moderation, but chiefly to pick ancestors who lived to be 90.

TEACHERS' PAY IN QUEBEC

From Montreal Gazette

The poor salaries paid to rural school teachers has long been a matter of humiliation for the Province of Quebec. Rural school boards, of course, would all like to have a scale of teachers' salaries established on a more generous basis, and no doubt such a scale would have been the rule long ago if the municipalities had the financial capacity to meet the demands.

Henceforward, however, in virtue of the law which was made effective throughout the province yesterday by order-in-council signed by the Lieutenant-Governor, every lay female teacher in Quebec's rural schools must be paid a minimum salary of $300 a year. The new law will be a boon and a blessing to many teachers, inasmuch as for a number of years hundreds of them have been in receipt of wages as low as $125 a year, a sum which cannot have been sufficient for the teachers' personal expenses.

A minimum of $500 a year would have been more in keeping with the importance of the duties which the recipients render.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

YOU CAN GET ALONG

SOME PROFESSORS of English have laboriously collected the 10 most over-worked words in the world today. I forget them, but it doesn't matter. What matters is that most people in America could get along very well with only these 10 words.

They used to teach us at school that Shakespeare used something like 10,000 words, whereas the ordinary yokel of his time used about 300. They seemed to think people nowadays had a much larger vocabulary, and probably they have, but they don't use it. The thing is too much trouble. What is the use of learning a lot of adjectives to describe beauty, honor, religion, patriotism, women's loveliness, and all the virtues when you can say "swell" and cover all of them at once? What is the use of learning a lot of terms of disapproval when you can use one word to describe politics, the Japanese campaign in China, the depression, a cold in the head or the boss? All of them are just lousy. What more do you want? Or if you have to appear literate for once, you can always say "definitely," and sound like a university graduate.

If you could measure this thing, you would probably find that in the course of an ordinary day an ordinary man uses less than 300 different words, perhaps less than 100. Indeed, many people in this city seem to get along very well with one word, "okay," and a farmer I know up the island, the best-read man I have ever seen, has lived 70 years and raised a large family with a single syllable, "Ugh."

COST OF LIVING

THE OTHER DAY I met a man who lives on the munificent unemployment relief allowance of the municipal, provincial and federal governments of Canada. He is one of those fellows who are fattening on the public purse. He gets exactly $1.68 a week.

It is surprising, he told me, what you can do on $1.68 a week if you know how. You can eat every day, only one meal, to be sure, but every day. His coat was mended with strings from a gunny sack and he had no hat, but he said he was in better health than at any time in his life. He couldn't drink now, or smoke, but he thought the main thing was not eating too much. People who can afford three meals a day, he said, eat too much and grow fat and sick. Half the appetite for food, he said, was in the mind, not the body, and some philosophers in India could go without food almost altogether.

On the whole, he thought he was happier living on $1.68 a week than when he used to have almost 100 times that much at one time in his life. When you owned things, he said, you worried about them. When you didn't own anything you had nothing to worry about. Hence he really had no worries at all.

In fact, he thought he was probably the only real free man in Victoria, and all the rest of us were slaves. Apparently there is plenty to keep one amused, when one is living on $1.68 a week. He said he had discovered the countryside for the first time, and the seashore, and made friends with a lot of kids playing on the beaches, and for the first time in his life he had leisure to read in the Public Library. He had absorbed most of the classics and a great many books on psychology and philosophy. The only thing he missed was a bit of fishing, which he couldn't afford.

He said he might get a job one of these days, but he didn't seem to know what he would do if he earned a dollar a day. He really had no use for so much money, and he was afraid it might ruin his health.

THINKING AHEAD

THOSE CYNICS who imagine that the public is incapable of thought, should regard the present state of the mass mind. Clearly the mass mind not only thinks abreast of events, but miles ahead of them.

Why, it was only a year or so ago that the public was sunk in despair, everybody felt that the thing couldn't go on much longer, flapper stenographers professed themselves rabid Communists, and people came to dinner and spent the evening arguing not about the certainty of early revolution but about the exact form it would take.

And now, behold, the same public which only a few months ago was ready for The End, has settled down to enjoy permanent prosperity and doesn't remember that it ever expected anything else. People come to dinner now and talk about the races or the weather or the grouse shooting. Flapper stenographers have forgotten their economics and have returned to cosmetics. One hardly hears at all of production, consumption, distribution, bank credit, of the proletariat or the bourgeoisie or any of those swell technical terms that surged through the town during the depression and were on the lips of thousands who enjoyed them thoroughly with no inconvenient notion of their meaning.

Everybody is happy and content now except for a few wrong-headed folk who refuse to become prosperous. But again the public thought is ahead of the event for the most obvious thing about the world is that it hasn't recovered from the depression, that the present state of things fundamentally is almost as bad as ever, and perhaps worse.

The public mind has surged still further ahead of events in the last few weeks. There has been a break in the stock market. It doesn't affect more than one man in a thousand, but already you can detect a change in the public tone. The prophets, who have been in hiding for a year, are crawling out of their holes. Housewives are beginning to complain about the higher cost of living. If the market doesn't rise soon I dare say you will soon hear old ladies talking higher economics and flappers demanding bloodshed, and the proletariat and the bourgeoisie will be with us again, while we are still enjoying a boom. The public mind, as usual, will be miles ahead of the event.

"Hot Money" Worries Diplomats

MONTREAL

THE QUESTION as to what has been transpiring between Sir Frederick Phillips, under-secretary of the British Treasury, now at Washington, and Henry Morgenthau Jr., Secretary of the United States Treasury, has been partly answered by the statement of the latter that some of the discussion would hinge on a proposed reciprocal agreement which would help the United States in its troubles with "hot money." Col. Phelan's financial press thinks the proposed agreement also appears likely to be of some assistance in reducing the flow of gold to the United States whenever it assumes unwieldy proportions, which, by the way, it has not done for several months. Another significant fact is that Merle Cochran, an American Treasury official attached to the Embassy in Paris, is also returning to the United States, presumably for special conferences with Henry Morgenthau.

It would thus appear that at least London and Washington are determined to maintain the stability which they have so far succeeded in introducing into the international monetary situation. Even with the domestic difficulties which France is encountering and which make it difficult for that country to participate to the same degree in the tripartite monetary agreement, the latter is still very much alive and enjoys the continued support of the Netherlands, Belgium and Switzerland.

The recent crisis in the French franc seems to have spent itself and the franc has recovered from an equivalent of 3.32 cents to above 3.42 cents, without, it is understood, much aid from the French Government. The situation now would therefore seem to be much healthier, as it has been known for some time that the franc had not been devalued enough, either in September, a year ago, or during its flurry last June. It is hoped that it has at last found its normal level and that the French economic position will be strengthened by virtue of the fact that her foreign trade will improve now that the franc is in a more normal relationship with other currencies and is not too dear for foreign countries to buy to pay for their purchases of French goods and services.

Those circumstances should make it easier for the French stabilization fund to re-coup itself and to resume a more active part in the workings of the tripartite agreement.

GOLD TROUBLES POSTPONED

THE LINES along which the American Government is trying to work with the British Government apparently envisage an agreement which will at one and the same time reduce the embarrassment of "hot money" and excessive gold imports. The trouble over "hot money" arises from the fact that the money which foreign investors place in American securities is subject to instant recall, and frequently precipitates a severe break in New York stocks on the strength of rumors which appear important to Europeans, but which may be of no importance to the American economic situation. Again, when the United States is prospering and a "scarce" occurs in Europe, European capital rushes to the United States and then withdraws when the scare is over, leaving a wake of affected securities behind it, all of which reacts detrimentally on the American economy.

While the free movement of capital is in many ways a good thing, its advantages are nullified when too much of it moves at one time, mainly for speculative purposes and not for the development of natural resources or industry. Therefore some regulations, expected to be introduced into the American Congress at its next session, would seem to be justified and would be considerably more effective if framed in conjunction with, and with the co-operation of, such a financially important country as Great Britain.

The conferences now going on in Washington would seem likely to be successful in achieving this result. Moreover, since Britain has increased her equalization fund by nearly one billion dollars, she is more in a position to prevent undue gold exports to the United States, and, if necessary, to minimize speculative fluctuations in the French franc beyond its normal levels. The most encouraging point, however, about the Washington conferences is the indication they give of the sustained co-operation and collaboration on all important monetary matters between Great Britain and the United States. This should go far to maintain stability in international exchanges and to help the flow of international trade thereby.

OUR FOREIGN POLICY

To the Editor:—Bruce Hutchison said not long ago that Canada ought to make up its mind upon a foreign policy. For Bruce's benefit you might perhaps care to reproduce the findings of the late Imperial Conference, of which body Canada was a prominent member.

Quoting from The London Times of September 4, the Conference made these recommendations: "To avoid making enemies on ideological grounds, to be strongly armed for defence, to open discussions with the Great Powers and to endeavor to find a solution of (Europe's) political and economic problems by frankness and goodwill and by readiness to do justice."

Since these recommendations were made new difficulties in other spheres make it necessary to substitute the world's for Europe's problems.

Canada, therefore, seems to have a fairly well-defined foreign policy. May we not rest content that Mr. Mackenzie King is quietly working with the rest of the Empire along these lines?

In any event, Mr. Editor, the same common sense of these recommendations will appeal to the majority of your readers as charting a course which in these troublous times may be followed with advantage in Canadian affairs, both external and internal. Mr. Bennett's suggestion of including a Communist in an all-Canadian conference is a step in the right direction.

DEAD HERO—OR UNWANTED VETERAN

To the Editor:—I read Dr. C. Davies remarks to which you reply editorially and which I detected a slight tendency to exaggerate, it is a fact that the treatment awarded the returned men by those who stayed behind does not rebound to their credit. Innumerable veterans have declared: "If only that shell or bullet had hit me in a vital spot I would be a hero, and monuments would be erected in my name, while, as it is, because I was so unfortunate as to return, I and many more are in want."

If we apply for work to state we fought overseas is fatal to our chances. A Chinaman gets a job; all we get are insults. Many civilians now delight to snigger that if we were cold, hungry and had to stand bombardments, such were only for brief periods, as we had frequent leaves on full pay. If a man got to "Blighty" over a year he was lucky.

No mention is made of the thousands of dollars an educated or skilled man lost. The rigid discipline, subservience to the pettifogging annoyance of every officer or N.C.O., browbeaten by M.P.'s, pickets, guards and inquisitors so numerous that made a man pause and ask: "Did I do a wrong when I joined up?" Evidently employers today think so, including those who did not re-employ an employee who applied. If you would know more about man's inhumanity to man, ask any man who sacrificed all for King and country.

"SHORTWEIGHTED" BY GOVERNMENT?

To the Editor:—Unfair trade practices, as the following will show, are not unknown to the Motor Licensing Department of the provincial government.

Having junked my old car on September 1, 1937, I returned to the department my motor license plates, the same costing me $20 at time of issue, March 1, 1937. On September 24 I received from the provincial treasury a cheque for only $4.90.

This should especially interest those who foolishly look for more fair and equitable trade practices from this shortweighting government.

CANADIAN FASCISM DIFFERENT

To the Editor:—"Commander of C.U.F." takes "D.M.P." to task for assuming that poisonous Fascist literature is more or less of a reactionary nature. He, in the role of "Commander," defends what he is pleased to call "Canadian Fascism" on the grounds that it is "different" from so-called foreign brands of dictatorship. Mussolini and Hitler put over their oppressive measures in a very similar manner by the use of high-sounding phrases, such as "National Socialism," etc. The fact of a political party conferring the title of "Commander" on its propagandists, smacks of militarism and oppression. The high sounding but meaningless planks in "Commander's" platform may deceive that gentleman, but they do not fit on I. M. P.

Younger, Fresher Galli-Curci Here

Famous Diva, Back in Victoria After 11 Years, Tells of Her New-found Voice

Galli-Curci came back to Victoria yesterday for her second visit, looking younger and more vivacious than she did when last in the city 11 years ago.

"And I feel younger, too," the famous diva said. "Why shouldn't I feel younger? When I was last in Victoria that terrible thing was tearing at my throat—tearing, tearing all the time. For 15 years it worried me. Then, two years ago, I had it removed in Chicago. I have felt younger and better ever since."

This dark-eyed woman, of Spanish and Italian parents, whose voice has thrilled countless thousands, sat in her suite at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon and talked of many things. She is just starting a concert tour of North America. Her first recital will be given here Friday evening.

LIKES VICTORIA

"It is so nice to be in Victoria again," she said. "I do remember my first visit 11 years ago. People were so nice. There were so many at my concert they sat on the stage. I shall never forget my audience here. It was so responsive. Other singers, and actors, too, have told me that of Victoria, so I am glad to return."

"And those baskets of flowers along your streets—I can hardly wait to get out and examine them. They are so welcoming—they are so sweet. I think Victoria has a decided personality, all its own. I see very little change, and I like that, too. I do not like change."

"What am I going to do in Victoria? I am going to work, I am going to rest, I am going to walk. I am a great walker. I love it, and I am going to walk all around the seaford, which I saw from the steamer."

And then Galli-Curci, possessor of a coloratura which, the critics say, has returned since her operation, talked of the world of opera. She was asked which was her favorite role. She hesitated a moment.

"Butterfly," "Bohème"—but really I have no favorite. Everything I sing, at the moment, is my favorite. It must be, otherwise I could not give it sincerely—my audience would not feel the part. I love them all. When I am doing a certain role, I love no other for the time being."

WORK NEVER OVER

Galli-Curci gave credit to any one studying music. There were many, she realized, who would never be able to use their voices, because they just did not have voices, but she encouraged them, too, for by studying they were learning much—particularly an appreciation of good music.

"And work is never finished," she said. "It goes on all the time. It is an endless study. I have been singing for years, but still I study. I must. Always my ears are open to new ideas and suggestions."

She has never smoked or indulged in any extent in cocktails. "I could not, even if I wanted to," she said. "It would not be fair to my voice—it would not be fair to my public."

Galli-Curci was asked her routine on the day of an evening recital.

"I always sleep from 2 to 4," she replied. "I have a light dinner at 5. Then I concentrate, I relax, I walk about the room. Then it is time to go to the theatre and I am always glad."

ALWAYS NERVOUS

"Am I ever nervous? Always. Everyone is. But only until I feel sure of myself, until I place my voice and sense the reactions of my audience. Then I forget to be nervous and live only in my songs."

Galli-Curci has never yet appeared in pictures, although she has sung over the radio and lives in Hollywood.

"The picture people are after me, after me, all the time, but I do not know—perhaps some day I will. How can you be artistic singing for the pictures. You have to repeat and repeat. You lose all spontaneity and that is not good. Perhaps I am missing a lot of fun, but somehow I feel I could never quite do my best in pictures."

Interviewers asked Galli-Curci if she had set a definite date for her retirement, like so many great singers have done.

"I never believe in talking about ageing, or of being finished," she said. "I live day by day, with all the energy I have. I have never spared myself, so why think of being finished."

WILL GO ON

"I don't believe in going on too long, until you are pathetic, but when you can still give pleasure, you have a perfect right to go. Schumann-Heink gave pleasure to many until her death, so she had a perfect right to go on. I shall do likewise. When I feel I no longer give pleasure I shall retire."

Galli-Curci never ceases to marvel at the wonder of the operation performed on her throat. She knew she was taking a chance with her golden voice, but that chance had to be taken.

"It was an ordeal for me to sing," she said. "But not now. I am more anxious to get my voice out. I enjoy singing more than I have done for many years."

I feel my voice has become bigger and it is nice to feel that."

Mrs. J. O. Cameron, who has brought Galli-Curci to Victoria for her recital at the Royal Victoria Theatre Friday evening said she was amazed at the change in her appearance.

"She looks 10 years younger than she looked 10 years ago," Mrs. Cameron, who also brought the diva on her first visit to Victoria, said as she met the singer and her husband-accompanist, Homer Samuels, at the dock.

They will remain in Victoria until Saturday afternoon—the longest stop in any one city on their tour programme.

SCOUTS WILL CONVENE HERE

First Rover Convention to Be Held in Victoria Early in October

A convention of Rover Scouts from Vancouver, Seattle, Bremerton and Bellingham will be held in Victoria with local Rover Scouts October 9, 10 and 11. It will be the first Rover convention ever to be held in Victoria.

The highlight of the three-day programme will be a banquet in Spencer's dining-room Saturday, October 9, when Lieut. Governor Hamber will be the guest of honor.

The banquet will be followed by a dance at the Crystal Garden, where sessions will also be conducted on Sunday, October 10. On Monday, sightseeing trips will be taken around the city.

Anyone wishing to billet out-of-town scouts during their stay may obtain information by phoning G 6994, or G 6468.

TO APPOINT NEW LEADER

HALIFAX (CP)—Resignation of Col. G. S. Harrington as leader of the Conservative Party in Nova Scotia was accepted Wednesday night at a meeting of the executive of the provincial association. Selection of a new leader for the party was not discussed.

Imports of Canada in 1936 had a total value of $635,190,000, as compared with $550,314,000 in the preceding year.

Y.M.C.A. Tea Attracted Many

Mrs. F. M. McGregor
Delightful
Hostess Yesterday

Mrs. Fred M. McGregor tendered the hospitality of her attractive home on Granite Street yesterday afternoon to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. and their friends at a silver tea in the interests of their work. The affair was the annual autumn tea arranged by the little group, and their joint efforts were rewarded by the handsome sum of about $72.

LOVELY FLOWERS

Mrs. S. J. Willis assisted the hostess in receiving the many guests in the entrance hall which, in common with the reception rooms, was beautifully arranged with flowers, scarlet dahlias, goldenrod and zinnias predominating. Mrs. James Adam and Mrs. M. Raynor were at the receipt of customs in the hall.

Great bowls of mauve and pink larkspur, Michaelmas daisies, asters and stocks added to the attractiveness of the drawing room, and in the library were gay zinnias, orange, yellow and peach-colored Iceland poppies and beautiful bowls of dahlias in the same shades. The decorations were the handiwork of Mrs. R. W. Mayhew and Mrs. Edwin Tomlin, who were also responsible for the charming corsage bouquets presented to Mrs. McGregor, Mrs. S. J. Willis, the artists who provided the music, and those who presided at the tea urns.

Miss Honor Benson delighted the gathering with her songs, "A Brown Bird Singing," "The Little Damsel" and "Four Ducks in a Pond," and was accompanied at the piano by Miss Gloria Wilson. Mrs. Duncan MacBride arranged the informal programme.

TEA ARRANGEMENTS

The dining-room, where tea was served, was illuminated by candlelight, giving a particularly attractive appearance to the setting. Tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. Duncan MacBride, Mrs.

Miss Avis Phillips of Vancouver is spending the week-end here as the guest of Mrs. Hebdon Gillespie, "Windyhaugh," Fairfield Road.

Mrs. C. Jaffray entertained at her home, Rowland Avenue, Monday afternoon, for Mrs. R. N. Penman, the occasion being her birthday. The prettily-decorated tea table was centred with pink cosmos and held a birthday cake of pink and white for the honored guest. From those present Mrs. Penman received a corsage bouquet and a personal gift. Assisting at the table was Mrs. G. Randall. The invited guests included the Mesdames R. N. Penman, E. Meiss, M. Miss Exton then received a large basket, gaily decorated with gold and blue crepe paper, which contained the many lovely gifts. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. K. Simpson, Mrs. T. Youell and Mrs. K. ## "DRESS UP" YOUR VEGETABLE DISHES

THERE is a new, tempting deliciousness which comes to vegetables when Carnation Milk is used to make a cream sauce for them. This double-rich milk, with cream in every drop, adds smoothness, flavour, food-value. And this applies to all cooking where milk is used. Because Carnation is just pure milk with part of the water taken out, made much more digestible by homogenization, made safe by sterilization, it is a splendid food for bottle-fed babies and growing children. And it has added "sunshine" vitamin D. Carnation is the evaporated milk the Dionne Quintuplets use.

Write for the gorgeously illustrated Carnation Cook Book. A host of ideas and recipes for 10c, coin or stamps. Address the Carnation Company Limited, Abbott St., Vancouver.

Province Will Hold Off Major Policies

Awaiting Completion of Royal Commission's Work, Says Premier

Premier Pattullo, in a radio address here last night, implied plainly that his government does not intend to launch any new major policies at the forthcoming session of the Legislature, or until the Rowell Commission and future conferences have settled the status of the provinces and Dominion.

Discussing the recent visit of Chief Justice N. W. Rowell, head of the commission, to Victoria, the Premier said:

"The magnitude of the matters under review are of paramount importance."

"I believe it to be in the interests of this province and of the Dominion as a whole, that pending consideration of the many questions involved in the constitutional relationship of the province and the Dominion that your provincial government shall not embark upon any major new programmes other than such as may be mutually agreed upon between your provincial government and the Dominion. I believe this to be sound policy which will ensure to the advantage of the province and the Dominion as a whole."

ROAD POLICY

While this might mean delay in some provincial plans, the Premier indicated that the province is prepared to join Ottawa at any time in an extensive works programme, particularly for roads. He instanced what has been done in the United States in this direction, and added:

"On some of our projected main highways it will take many years before they are completed at the rate at which we are now proceeding."

"Until this work is completed the people are not able to make use of the work which is accomplished each year."

"This ties up a lot of capital and costs money."

"A programme sufficiently broad in scope to complete our main highways in a few years would not only be the means of allaying much public criticism and unrest, but, I believe, would be sound economy and pay in dollars and cents."

"There would be more tourists, more traffic, and consequently more money coming into the provincial treasury. We propose to pursue this subject as vigorously as possible."

And in hand with roads, the Premier announced that the new Department of Trade and Industry will pay a good deal of attention to promoting the tourist business, as well as seeking new avenues for commercial trade.

NO HIGHWAY COMMISSION

The Premier said, replying to agitation for a highway commission, that the government has no intention of setting one up now. The expense would not be justified until the province knows how it will stand for road money the commission would be useless, he said.

On his coming visit to Ottawa, which he starts Saturday, the Premier said he will continue negotiations on the deal for an nexation of Yukon to British Columbia, and will assist on a joint approach with Ottawa to the Doukhobor problem, to "arrive at a permanent and satisfactory solution so that public property shall not be subjected to destruction and our population, other than the Doukhobors, will not be humiliated that such lack of respect for law and order should occur in our midst."

The Premier criticized what he termed "mischievous press reports," citing particularly items which had appeared with reference to Hon. T. A. Crerar's visit and the Yukon plan, and to what he said were misrepresentations of the road work done by the government.

Single Case For Exchequer Court

One case will be considered here by the Exchequer Court of Canada scheduled to open sessions in the Court House on Saturday morning at 10 with Hon. A. K. MacLean presiding.

Norman W. Whittaker, K.C., will appear for the Tire Specialty Company Ltd. which is protesting the collection of excise taxes by the Dominion Government on retreads made by the company.

W. P. Lawson will defend the practice for the Excise Department.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel"
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1937

Beneficent aspects rule strongly today, according to astrology. This is an auspicious date for arranging new enterprises for the winter.

Whatever is creative or constructive benefits under this rule of the stars, which encourages building of new structures and expansion of space occupied by factories.

The configuration is promising for those who sign legal papers of every sort and especially for contracts or international agreements.

Women are well directed today and will profit through whatever pertains to shopping for apparel or household furnishings. Modistes and milliners should benefit.

This is read as a fortunate way for girls who seek any sort of employment and especially for those in the artistic professions. Actresses should be lucky. Men who wield authority are subject to planetary influences which tend to produce good feeling on the part of those who they rule.

CRCV Becomes CBR Tomorrow

Tonight for the last time Victorians whose radio dials are turned to 1,100 kilocycles will hear the familiar "This is CRCV, the voice of British Columbia at Vancouver."

Tomorrow morning the call letters which have long been familiar to local listeners will be changed to CBR. CBR will continue in all other respects to be the CRCV of the past, carrying the programmes of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Seattle Station On New Network

KOL Will Join Mutual Broadcasting System October 10

Victoria's radio listeners on October 10 will have another radio network added to the four major chains from which they can at present pick their entertainment.

On that date station KOL in Seattle, for many years affiliated with the Columbia and Don Lee systems, will join the rapidly-expanding Mutual Broadcasting System.

The Mutual Broadcasting System, which has operated for some years in the eastern United States, has taken over the Don Lee network in the west. KOL will become Mutual's key station in the Pacific northwest, and will sever its connection with Columbia, whose programmes will still be available to Victoria listeners over KVI, Tacoma, in the daytime, and over KSL, Salt Lake City, and KNX, Hollywood, at night.

After October 10 the five networks receivable in Victoria will be Mutual, Columbia, the two NBC chains, red and blue, and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

RELIEF LISTS AT NEW LOW

Total on B.C. Rolls Drops to 46,741 in August

British Columbia unemployment relief lists in August dropped to their lowest marks since 1930.

There were 46,741 persons given assistance, including 10,849 heads of families, 28,969 dependents and 6,923 single persons.

This, compared with 68,690 persons in August, 1936, the decline being nearly one-third, and with 50,913 in July.

Besides persons on direct relief, the government maintained 2,586 men on various projects, including 500 in forestry training camps, 246 in placer camps, 1,300 on highway construction, 400 on mining trails and 140 in national parks.

Duncan Growers Favor Control

DUNCAN (CP)—A motion to go on record as in favor of marketing control in British Columbia providing it is directed by the government through its contact men was passed by a meeting of potato growers here Monday night.

The meeting was called by George Howland, contact man between the B.C. Coast Vegetable Marketing Board and the farmers in this Vancouver Island district.

Also passed was a resolution that marketing control of potatoes be carried on for a short trial period and that a vote of all registered owner growers under the B.C. Coast Vegetable Marketing Act be taken not later than January 1, 1938.

Approval was given to a resolution by Howland asking the government to take immediate steps to "deal effectively" with growers.

Hitler Incident In Montreal Is Closed

MONTREAL (CP)—Joseph Eustache, Almeria-born Montrealese who shattered a picture of Hitler with a chair when he stormed into the German consulate here the day after a German warship had bombed his native town in Spain, was acquitted Wednesday in King's Bench Court of a charge of wilful damage.

Chief Justice R. A. E. Green-shield advised the jury the case was "a tempered in a very small teapot."

"It was lucky Hitler was not present," the chief justice said, "or else he might have got it."

In tub washing the New Rinso gives 25 to 50% more suds than ordinary soaps could get them. Colours come out bright and fresh. You don't have to scrub or boil the clothes. Rinso's energetic suds do the hard work—quickly, thoroughly. This gentle "no-scrub" method makes clothes last 2 or 3 times longer. Rinso is recommended by the makers of 25 washers.

STORE MARKS ANNIVERSARY

Ray's Commemorates Founding: Owner Came Here 25 Years Ago

Opened here on September 11, 1936, Ray's, popular departmental food store, will commemorate its first year of operation in Victoria with an anniversary sale, beginning tomorrow.

Ray's is not a chain store. It is owned outright and independently operated, by Ray Eslinger, well known in this city for a quarter of a century. Though Mr. Eslinger has extensive business interests of a similar nature in Vancouver, his Victoria store is managed as an entirely separate unit, distinct from the Vancouver organization.

At the outset of an unusually romantic career, Mr. Eslinger came to Victoria from Missouri,

RAY ESLINGER

25 years ago. He entered the realm of business here as an employee of the pioneer butcher firm of Goodacre's Limited. On the staff of the well-known Fort Street store at the present time is an employee, Billy King, who was a colleague of Mr. Eslinger in the employ of Goodacre's 25 years ago.

After leaving Goodacre's, Mr. Eslinger entered the service of P. Burns & Co. Ltd. here, and in 1911 moved to Vancouver, where he worked with various meat packing and butcher firms before setting up in business for himself in a small store on Powell Street in February, 1914. From this humble origin, the Eslinger business interests have grown to occupy a place in the first rank of retail merchandising concerns in British Columbia.

Fond of Victoria, and with a host of friends here, Mr. Eslinger determined to return to this city to live when he decided, several years ago, to retire from the active management of his business interests.

Ray's, the management explained today, is different, not only from any other store in Victoria, but also from any other store in British Columbia. It is not a chain store, but a concentration under one roof of many individual departments that might well have been independent shops in various parts of the city. There are a butcher shop, a butter and cheese shop, a fish shop, a candy shop, a delicatessen shop, and a grocery store, which includes a tobacco and magazine shop and a remedy department. Each is operated as a separate unit, though all are under the same roof. The elimination of overhead costs through this mode of organization enables the lowering of prices and the paying of higher than usual wages.

Extraordinarily rapid turnover is another major factor in the low prices the consumer pays at Ray's.

The policy of the firm is to keep net profits to a predetermined figure. Any excess is returned to the public as a consumer's dividend in the form of lowered prices.

A quite remarkable esprit de corps prevails among the employees of Ray's. In Vancouver, many of the staff have served with the mainline firm for 17 and 18 years.

It is likewise a matter of pride for Mr. Eslinger to recall that the first customer to enter his modest Powell Street butcher shop in 1914, is still a customer of his today.

There will be league games in all divisions from midgets to seniors. V. Kenneth was appointed chairman of referees.

New Scrutiny Of Films in Quebec

Cardinal Villeneuve Proposes Church Board Look Over Movies

QUEBEC (CP)—Establishment of a provincial Catholic body to examine moving pictures in Quebec and take steps to provide films complying with strict moral standards, is proposed by Cardinal Villeneuve.

The Roman Catholic Church in Quebec shortly will adopt a definite policy with regard to moving pictures, which "so often lead our youth in evil ways, presenting life in a false perspective, destroying ideals of pure love and respect of marriage, and suggesting skilfulness in crime," said the cardinal in a statement.

The proposed body would insist on "morally sound" pictures from the producers, establish a bureau of classification of all films coming to the province and seek from the provincial government, if necessary, laws complementary to present legislation to assure adequate control of the industry in Quebec province.

See Small Cut In Assessments

Prospects of Major Change in Figures For 1938 in City Regarded Slight

Scant prospects of a major change in city assessments for 1938 were seen today as officials of the city assessor-collector's department prepared figures for release tomorrow.

Over a period of years it has been the policy of George A. Okell, assessor-collector, to make a major reduction in the assessed value of improvements once every two years. Mr. Okell cut the improvements by approximately 5 per cent for 1937. It was understood he would make no material change in the general figures for 1938.

Land was expected to remain fairly stable, no developments having occurred to change the assessment in that respect to any great extent.

Last year the assessment on land stood at approximately $18,000,000, and on improvements at $27,000,000.

In improvements, the rising costs of building were regarded as factors against any great reduction which might be expected from depreciation and obsolescence, although individual cases may enjoy the benefits of actual reduced value from those features.

Products Display Given at Nanaimo

NANAIMO—The Eagles' Hall overflowed last night from the crowd attending the annual British Columbia Products display sponsored by Nanaimo Board of Trade and the local I.O.D.E. and under the direction of Vancouver Board of Trade. The address was given by Fred Mathers, vice-president of Vancouver Board of Trade, who reviewed the early days of the Canadian fur trade when tariffs came into being for its protection until the country was sufficiently populated.

New industries of today require the same encouragement, he declared, until they get stabilized regardless of the existing controversial questions of tariffs.

A. C. Forman gave a comprehensive word picture of British Columbia's increasing and expanding industries which furnish employment for youth.

SCHOOLS OPEN OCTOBER 12

TORONTO (CP)—All Toronto schools will be closed until October 12, the day after Thanksgiving Day, under an order made by the Board of Health, Wednesday, as result of the number of cases of infantile paralysis.

Liquid air can cause curious effects. Most liquids are solidified, and most solids are hardened, when immersed in liquid air. India rubber becomes as brittle as glass. Meats become so solid that they give off a metallic ring when struck with a hammer.

Evergreen Will Carry On Work

Great Tourist Crops Are Predicted For Next Three Years

The Evergreen Playground Association, from which Victoria receives so much in the way of tourist publicity, will hold together as the result of a meeting held in Portland, Ore., on Monday, and which was attended on behalf of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau by Alderman Archie Wills, a director, and George L. Warren, publicity commissioner.

Grave doubt was expressed prior to the meeting as to whether or not it would fold up, but Victoria, although one of the smallest contributors, was anxious to have it carry on because its benefits from the association are large. Victoria's contribution is but $1,500, but it receives equal publicity and consideration as does Vancouver, which contributes $9,000, and Vancouver and Seattle, which contribute $8,500 each.

which was the largest held for some years by the association, felt that the tourist possibilities for the next three years were extremely promising, and that every effort should be made to get the full benefits from the great crowds which will want to visit the Northwest. Unsettled conditions in Europe and the Orient, the ever-growing conviction that this is the only part of the country that isn't parched or dried up in summer, where the climate is pleasant and where the fishing is good, coupled with the San Francisco World Fair in 1939 and the numerous people who are driving to see the Grand Coulee and Bonneville dams, will all tend to increase the flow of tourists.

"There are big tourist dollars in sight for the next few years," said one delegate, "and instead of thinking of closing we should think of spending $100,000 in publicity. There's no use having something good here unless we advertise it. We know what we have but the east doesn't."

Adult Gymnasium Classes Planned

DUNCAN—A special meeting of Duncan Consolidated School Board was held Tuesday evening to hear N. Bouchard's request for the use of the gymnasium for adult physical training classes. This was granted until Christmas. In the meantime the board will meet the cost of light and fuel, with whatever help the classes can give.

The transportation committee submitted a proposal to reroute one of the school buses to take the overflow on the Maple Bay route, as proposed by the Coach Lines Company. After discussion it was decided to keep to the present arrangement, which provides for a small car in addition to the bus.

GARDEN CITY

Under the auspices of the women's association, an autumn silver tea was held Tuesday afternoon at Garden City United Church. The programme included a contest entailing the identification of the leaves of trees growing in Saanich. Mrs. D. Reid secured the honors. Mrs. Maud Hammond of Victoria gave an address on current events.

WANDA'S "worn-out" WASHER gets a new lease on life...

OH DEAR, THESE CLOTHES ARE SO GRAY AND DINGY. THAT OLD WASHER'S ON ITS LAST LEGS.

I MAY BE OLD—BUT I COULD GET CLOTHES WHITE AS ANYTHING, IF IT WEREN'T FOR LAZY SOAPS LIKE YOU.

HO, HO! YOU MAKE ME LAUGH—OLD GRAYBEARD!

10 MINUTES LATER

NONSENSE! LOOK AT THAT OLD-FASHIONED SOAP YOU'RE USING. IT WOULDN'T EVEN GET CLOTHES WHITE IN MY NEW WASHER. WAIT—I'LL GET SOME OXYDOL.

...AND OH, IF I COULD ONLY AFFORD A MODERN WASHER!

OXYDOL? BUT ISN'T THAT ONE OF THOSE GRANULATED "SOAKING SOAPS" THAT FADES COLORS SO BAD?

HAVEN'T YOU HEARD? OXYDOL'S A NEW SAFE KIND, MADE BY THE IVORY SOAP PEOPLE, AND IT GETS CLOTHES 4 TO 5 SHADES WHITER—EVEN IN THESE OLD MACHINES.

A FEW MINUTES LATER

LOOK—THEY'RE SNOWY WHITE, AND THE WASHER'S BEEN GOING NO TIME AT ALL!

THAT'S BECAUSE OXYDOL SOAKS OUT THE DIRT WHILE THE WASHER IS RUNNING. YOU GET DOUBLE ACTION WASH.

THROUGH ALREADY—IT'S AMAZING! BUT ARE YOU SURE OXYDOL'S SAFE FOR COLORS?

SEE THIS PRINT PRESS? I'VE WASHED IT SCORES OF TIMES IN OXYDOL. AND THE COLORS ARE BRIGHT AS NEW.

THAT EVENING

HONEY, HOW'D YOU DO IT—THESE SHIRTS ARE WHITE AS SNOW!

I'VE FOUND A NEW SOAP CALLED OXYDOL THAT WORKS WONDERS IN THAT OLD WASHING MACHINE. AND IT'S SAFE AS CAN BE FOR COLORS, TOO.

I MAY BE OLD, BY HECK—BUT GIVE ME OXYDOL, AND I'LL GET CLOTHES SNOWY WHITE!

IT'S TRUE! NEW SOAP MAKES OLD MACHINES WASH WHITE CLOTHES 4 TO 5 SHADES WHITER

Yet This Amazing Soap Is So Safe, That Every Washable Color Comes Out Sparkling, Brilliant!

Don't blame your washing machine because it is old—because clothes come gray and dingy! Simply switch to this new and amazing laundry soap, OXYDOL, and see your white clothes wash 4 to 5 shades whiter!

OXYDOL is the latest amazing laundry soap, developed by the makers of gentle Ivory. It is the result of a new formula which makes mild, gentle soap 2 to 3 times whiter washing—yet keeps it safe! And—a patented process which makes it far faster acting!

What It Does

OXYDOL works on an utterly new principle. It soaks out the dirt while the washer is running... you get a double action wash! Thus white clothes wash away white in record time... even in old model machines! You get your wash done in 25% to 40% less time! You save wear and tear on clothes, because you don't have to run the washer so long. No dirty spots to scrub out by hand, either, because OXYDOL's thick, 3-inch suds soak out the dirt for you!

In tub washing, OXYDOL saves the back-breaking scrubbing and boiling. You soak clothes just 15 minutes to the tubful, and white clothes wash 4 to 5 shades whiter than with less modern soaps. Even the "tough" spots come snowy white with a quick rub between the fingers.

Yet OXYDOL is so safe that every washable color comes out brilliant, fresh! Even sheer cotton prints, washed 100 consecutive times in OXYDOL suds, showed no perceptible sign of fading.

No wonder women by the thousands are switching to this whiter washing, faster washing laundry soap. And finding that their old washing machine gives results that amaze them!

OXYDOL is economical, too. Tests show that, cup for cup, one package will go one-third to one-half again as far as even the latest soap chips on the market. Get OXYDOL from your dealer today. Procter & Gamble.

INSTALL NEW CLUB HEADS

Gene Ivy, Yakima, Performs Annual Gyro Club Ceremony at Banquet

Approximately 125 members, their wives and friends, were present at the Gyro Club annual installation banquet and dance held yesterday evening in the Empress Hotel grill. Retiring president Angus McIntyre was in the chair.

In a short address at the start of the dinner Mr. McIntyre expressed his satisfaction in the fine progress of the annual Christmas Hamper fund and the Forum project, and sincerely thanked the press, other service clubs and societies for their respective assistance and support of Gyro work.

Present at the banquet was Gyro Governor Gene Ivy from Yakima, Washington, who carried out the formal part of the installation ceremonies.

Those officers installed were: President, Everett Taylor; vice-president, R. L. (Bert) Challoner; secretary-treasurer, Harold L. Butteris; directors, W. L. Clarke, Neil H. Grant, A. R. Minnis, A. E. Osborough and H. E. Savage. Following the installation ceremony, Governor Ivy turned over the gavel to the new president.

The new president then made a short address, at the conclusion of which he was presented with the past president's pin. He is the 18th Gyro president. Four former leaders have left the club while six of the originals who signed the application for the charter are still with the club. There are 25 who have been members for 10 years.

Noted guests present at the banquet included Capt. T. J. and Mrs. Goodlake, representing the Rotary Club; Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Walker, representing the Kiwanis Club; Mr. and Mrs. Pat J. Mulcahy, representing the Kinsmen; B. C. Gillie, representing the Revellers, and Gregory Yorke, newly-installed president of the Vancouver Gyro Club.

R. E. K. Gordon, a new member, was introduced at the banquet.

Architect Makes Inspection Tour

C. F. Dawson, district resident architect of the Department of Public Works of Canada, returned early this week after making a 2,000-mile inspection trip by motor through the province by way of the Cariboo, Kamloops and East Kootenays, and finds business generally is in a much more flourishing condition than a year ago.

The building trade is exceptionally busy in the Okanagan towns. The roads generally have been widened and improved during the year, but there are still hundreds of miles extremely rough and dusty.

Upon his return to the office he was pleased to find a letter from the department with a message from His Majesty, King George VI, and a Coronation Medal.

Smart Infield Peps Up Giants

Overcome Injuries to Develop One of Scippiest Teams on Record

NEW YORK—There's been something downright uncanny about the "hard luck" of the New York Giants this season. If Col. Bill Terry's forces had been afflicted with only a little more of the miseries they might have clinched the National Baseball League flag weeks ago.

Drop them on their heads and they come up wearing a wreath of roses. Deal them a really scurvy hand from the bottom of the deck and they'll take the jack pot. That's what their rivals say, anyway, and it's one of the reasons why the Polo Grounders are a grand short-end bet to lick the slugging Yankees in the play-off starting next Wednesday.

The failure of Lou Chiozza to fill Travis Jackson's shoes at third base forced Col. Bill to pull Melvin Ott out of right field and, in desperation, plant him at the warm corner. That was too bad. With Ott in there, the Giants dropped 15 out of their next 53 games.

Then, entering the home stretch, Gus Mancuso, the team's great catcher, was injured, and there was mounting among the Giants' supporters. It lasted clear until the day, when Harry (the Horse) Danning picked the bench splinters out of his pants and took over the backstopping. Mancuso has been trying ever since to get his job for keeps.

There were other similar calamities, and all of them have combined to make the Giants in recent weeks one of the hottest, scrappiest clubs that ever headed for a world series. They are being compared, as is customary, to those sizzling Boston Braves who knocked off the Athletics four straight in 1914, or some such mystical year.

The move that "made" the Giants, of course, was the shifting of Mel Ott to third base. His inspired play there, and the way he has fitted in with Dick Bartell at shortstop, Burgess Whitehead at second and the freshman, Jack McCarthy, at first, gives the Terrymen an obvious bulge over the Yankee infield. Bartell and Whitehead are regarded by many as the finest double-play combination in baseball.

would be nowhere without the young talent discovered and developed by clubs which are starved for cash.

On the matter of increased wages there are probably no more than a dozen clubs in the entire league which could afford to pay more, and there would certainly be even less who would wish to pay more. The wage limit was fixed by the clubs themselves, and there has never been any particular eagerness among the rich clubs to increase the limit. If there were such eagerness it would be defeated by the poorer clubs on a vote.

OUR MAIL BAG

BASKETBALL SITUATION

To the Sports Editor:—The attitude which the management and members of the Dominos have taken will not gain them any applause from those who believe that it is "the game that counts."

After all, the game is purely amateur in this country, and those who would seek to profit financially by it should, in the interests of the sport, turn to something else.

No one will deny that the Dominos have in the past given some fine exhibitions of basketball, but it is equally true that in the last two years they have been beaten in the Dominion play-offs by teams which have proved that they were superior.

I think the school board should reconsider its decision and grant the league teams at least two nights per week as, after all, it is to the league we have to look for the perpetuation of the sport in this city. SPORT LOVER.

BASKETBALL SET-UP

To all affiliated basketball clubs, leagues and centres of the Vancouver Island Amateur Basketball Association:

After reading the reports in the Victoria newspapers of the Victoria league meeting of the 27th, it seems some official statement from the island association is necessary to clear the air on amateur matters.

1. The new amateur set-up of the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association has been approved by the International Amateur Basketball Federation, the letter of confirmation was read at the council meeting of the B.C.A.B. Association's annual meeting at my request.

2. Amateur standing of island teams affiliated with the B.C.A.B. Association who are anticipating playing exhibition games with teams from the United States must have C.A.B. Association amateur cards, and should the American teams demand A.A.U. of C. cards, the B.C.A.B. Association has no objection to their teams holding both cards.

3. It must be clearly understood, no island team will be allowed to enter into competition for league, district, provincial or Canadian play-offs, without all players over 18 years of age holding the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association amateur card. G. E. BONNER, Pres. V.I.A.B. Assn.

JOHNSON OUT WITH RANGERS

Veteran "Ching" Given Unconditional Release By New York Ice Club

NEW YORK—Ivan "Ching" Johnson, battered 40-year-old veteran of eleven National Hockey League campaigns, has asked for and been given his outright release, Lester Patrick, manager of New York Rangers, announced Tuesday.

Johnson, a rugged defence star with Rangers since coming east from Minneapolis when the Rangers were organized in 1926, declined an offer to coach Rangers' amateur team, Rovers, of the United States Eastern League, at the salary he received last season. From his California fruit farm Johnson wired he believed the was good enough to play another season and would prefer trying to land a playing berth: He is now dickering with New York Americans.

Rangers also announced they had overcome a league ruling that a player stay out of active competition for one year after retiring and that this would enable them to place Murray Murdoch with Philadelphia, of the International-American circuit.

TWO ISLAND SOCCER LOOPS

Leagues Will Be Operated in Both Nanaimo and Cumberland

NANAIMO—Two active soccer leagues will be formed shortly on Vancouver Island, delegates to Tuesday night's meeting of the British Columbia Soccer Commission here decided.

Acting on a suggestion advanced by C. Jones and J. N. Richardson of the provincial commission, delegates from Nanaimo and Cumberland, decided to form the leagues in their cities immediately. All-star teams from each league will play two games every month.

The new leagues will run themselves as far as Vancouver Island games are concerned, but the commission will control all cup games, the meeting decided.

Three teams may be formed in Cumberland, and another at nearby Bevan for the upper island loop. Nanaimo teams will probably be Nanaimo City football club, South End, Reserve, and Harewood.

Alderman J. G. Hindmarch of Nanaimo, last year's president of the N.C.F.C., was named district representative on the soccer commission, succeeding Nat Bevis who resigned recently.

Await Word On Fire Brigade

Oak Bay Expected to Make Announcement Following Present Conferences

City fire wardens today awaited definite action by Oak Bay on its protection plans, following further conferences between F. F. Dowling, chief engineer for the B.C. Insurance Underwriters' Association, fire branch; D. S. McGregor, district manager here, and representatives of the agents' association and municipal officials.

Yesterday the underwriters agreed to give consideration to a request from Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan for a reduction of rates in Victoria.

On the other question of protection for Oak Bay an announcement was awaited by the city.

"As the result of these conferences we expect Oak Bay to reach some definite decision on the question of protection," Alderman Morgan stated today.

He declined to elaborate on his statement, but it was understood Oak Bay was determining the exact need of the municipality in the way of a fire department to maintain its present insurance rates. It was believed that when costs of such a department were set the municipality would announce its intentions.

While Oak Bay is proceeding with plans for a loan by-law to finance its own brigade, it was felt in certain quarters that the municipality might seek a return to a modified form of prior agreements whereby the city furnished protection.

ALASKA ROAD IS POSSIBLE

Saturday Evening Post Writer Here to Watch Outcome of Interview

The Alaska Highway is no impossible project, either of engineering or finance, in the opinion of Edward A. Lucas, Vancouver, lawyer and political writer who is in Victoria today.

Mr. Lucas has been commissioned by The Saturday Evening Post to write an article on the highway scheme, and is here to learn the attitude of the provincial government, and to watch for any discussion of the question today between President Roosevelt and Premier T. D. Pattullo.

"Any one of 100 odd broken-down PWA projects in the United States would pay for a highway from Seattle to Fairbanks," he said in an interview at the Empress Hotel this morning. "Fourteen million dollars seems a lot of money to us, but that is only by the British Columbia scale of things."

He had driven over highways between banks of snow many feet high and over burning deserts where there was nothing but a few buffalo skulls for hundreds of miles on end, he said. If roads could be built there, there was no reason why the Alaska route should be impossible.

Mr. Lucas' story is already written except for the portion dealing with the attitude of the Premier and the outcome of today's interview.

Army of Press And Cameramen

Bulbs Flash Continually During President's Stay in Victoria

Camera bulbs popped and flashed continuously, and though G-men attempted to push away the over-ardent photographers, the press had it pretty much its own way when the President arrived at the Canadian National Railway Ogden Point docks this morning.

Long before the expected arrival of Mr. Roosevelt, there were cameramen and newspapermen everywhere. Motion picture men had their cameras perched inside and outside and on top of the shed.

There were a number of them mounted on cars awaiting the procession.

As the U.S.S. Phelps steamed in toward the docks cameras began to click. Photographers stooped, knelt, even lay down on the wet dock to get angle shots as the boat came so close the President could be seen sitting in the centre smoking a cigarette under the torpedo tubes.

As the destroyer slowly docked the photographers stood in a row on the edge of the dock. The water just around the U.S.S. Phelps was soon full of used bulbs. Some of the cameramen had assistants who fed them new flash bulbs.

G-MEN ON BOAT

When the boat was a little distance from the dock there were only two secret service men standing near the President. One was his personal guard and the other, who was chatting with John Bottiger, the President's son-in-law, was Capt. W. R. Jarrell, in charge of the secret service in Seattle.

However, as the boat approached, six plainclothes men came up on the deck. They stood together on one side when the officials went on board to welcome the President.

When the second destroyer berthed, more cameramen and newspapermen poured on to the dock. These were the U.S. reporters who have been following the President on his journey.

Led by a huge man with a movie camera over one shoulder, they came down like a cloud—papers and pencils out—to the gangplank where the President was coming off. Sailors off the U.S.S. Porter hurried along behind the press men carrying some of their equipment.

Camera bulbs reached a peak of flashing when the President began to walk down the gangplank, but a bulky G-man pushed away some of the photographers who got too close.

CROWD AROUND CAR

As the President got into his car the cameramen, crowded around. Some of them stood on the running boards, others on the bumpers. They raised their cameras high above their heads, pointing them at Mr. Roosevelt reclining in the back seat of the landau.

There was an intermittent flashing, but most of them waited until Lieutenant Governor Eric W. Hamber sat down beside the President.

As the car moved from the edge of the gangplank into the shed, the G-men put their hands on the back of it as though they were pushing it along. The flashing continued as the officials and their wives were introduced to the President. All the time each G-man stood holding on to the car with one hand, the other hand in his pocket.

One of them pushed away a newspaperman who was using the President's car as a desk.

RADIO COMMENTATOR

All the time the President was smiling and shaking hands with the line of people, a news commentator from CKWX stood close to the car talking into a microphone.

In the middle of the handshaking, he handed the microphone to the President and he said a few words to the radio audience.

After the United States national anthem had been played, the President's car moved out of the shed. A G-man stood on each running board. Led by Sgt. J. Petterson, a fleet of city and municipal motorcycle police swept along in front and around the President's car.

Along the route of the procession were 40 city and municipal police, 35 dismounted B.C. police and 18 mounted police.

Saanich and Esquimalt police co-operated with the provincial and city police in looking after the gigantic crowds. Oak Bay police looked after the route of the procession through that municipality.

The regular monthly meeting of the Victoria Welsh Society will be held tomorrow evening in the A.O.F. Hall, on Cormorant Street. All members are asked to be present. Friends and visitors are also welcome at these meetings.

OBITUARY

JOHANN ARNI HALL

At the Royal Jubilee Hospital yesterday Johann Arni Hall of 3146 Somerset Street passed away, aged 69 years. Born in Iceland, Mr. Hall resided here for the last seven years. One son, Andrew H. Hall of this city, survives. The remains are resting at the Sands Mortuary and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

ANNIE DAUPHIN

Mrs. Annie Dauphin of 22 Rowland Avenue, Saanich, passed away this morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, aged 78 years. She was born in Montreal and had been here 27 years, and is survived by a son, Leonard, 123 Olive Street, and four grandchildren, a sister in Hamilton, Ont., and one brother, Wm. Belleau, in Winnipeg. Funeral services will be held at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel on Saturday at 2. Rev. A. de B. Owen will officiate, and interment will be in Royal Oak Burial Park.

DELOSSA WALKER

The remains of Miss Delossa (Dell) Walker of Collingwood, Ont., who passed away suddenly in Ottawa on September 15, were laid at rest in the family plot in Collingwood Cemetery. Rev. Alexander Kerr officiated. Miss Walker was on her way to Victoria to make her home with her only sister, Mrs. C. H. Morse, when she had a seizure which proved fatal. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Morse, who was in Collingwood for the funeral services, and four brothers, Pearce, Harry, Norton and Russell Walker.

Today's Baseball

PHILADELPHIA — Giving King Carl Hubbell the honor of clinching the pennant, the New York giants today won their second straight National League championship by topping the Phillies 2 to 1 behind the five-hit pitching of their great left-hander.

It was the Giants' 15th league championship and their third under the management of Bill Terry, who was not with the club today, being confined to his room in New York by illness.

Hubbell had a four-hit shut-out in his grasp with two out in the ninth, when Dolph Camilli clouted a pitch over the right field wall for a homer. That was the only threat against the south-paw ace throughout the game, as his mates staked him to a run in the first and another in the third off Claude Passeau. Both runs were scored by Dick Bartell and driven in by Johnny Mc Carthy.

The pennant-winning victory climaxed a Giant drive similar to the surge they made to take last year's title. In third place on June 25, they began the rally which did not end until they came in with the crown. During that stretch they won 60 games and lost only 29.

B.C. IMPRESSES BRITISH PARTY

Members of National Union Thrilled By Day at Island Logging Camp

Six British farmers, a London timber man, an architect and members of their families are in Victoria today in the course of an inspection trip through Canada which is designed to acquaint them better with the primary producing resources of the Dominion.

Members of the British National Union, an organization of primary producers, the party arrived at the Empress Hotel yesterday evening after spending two days up-island.

The greatest thrill of their whole trip across Canada, they said this morning, was the day they spent on Tuesday at a Port Alberni lumber camp. They saw trees topped and felled and ate a proper lumberman's meal. "That is the real Canada," commented one member of the group.

British Columbia, several of the groups said, was the province which had most impressed them by its potentialities.

The thing in Canada which most struck them was the hospitality of Canadians of all stations and in all parts of the Dominion.

The party is made up of E. S. May, lumber man, and Mrs. May, C. E. Worthington, London architect; Albert West, Arthur West, J. M. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Rose-Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. F. Cuttings, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Simpson, and Mrs. C. J. Pearce of the Okanagan, who joined the group on the way across British Columbia.

P. K. Reynolds, traveling passenger agent of the C.P.R., is the conductor.

SEVERAL STOPOVERS

The party visited the Dominion Experimental Farm in Ottawa, the Experimental Farm at Guelph, Ont., the Fort William elevator, a number of farms at Brandon, Man., Banff and Lake Louise, and a salmon cannery in Vancouver.

On their way to Victoria from Port Alberni yesterday, they stopped off at the Prince of Wales Fairbridge Farm School, Duncan.

They will leave tomorrow afternoon for Salmon Arm, whence they will make a motor tour through the Okanagan to Penticton as the guests of the provincial government.

They will then travel from Penticton to Lethbridge, Alta.; drive through the Turner Valley oil fields and visit the E.P. Ranch, and take the train at Calgary for Winnipeg and Montreal, by way of Chicago.

On their way west the farmers saw a little of the Saskatchewan drought area. "We were absolutely appalled," said one member of the group.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Lupe Velez, Mexican movie firebrand, has signed a lucrative contract with Azteca Films of Mexico City to play the leading role in a romantic picture depicting her country's colorful history.

The contract calls for a salary of $12,500 a week, with a minimum of three weeks' work guaranteed.

A special meeting of Victoria Division No. 65, St. John Ambulance Brigade, will be held at division headquarters tomorrow evening at 7:30.

Honor Retiring Court Official

Bar and Colleagues Pay Tribute to B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake

As a tribute to the high esteem in which he is held, members of the legal profession here as well as colleagues in the Attorney-General's Department and the court registry office today honored B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake, retiring registrar, with presentations.

Mr. Drake is leaving the service after 42 years.

On behalf of the bar association, H. W. Davey presented to Mr. Drake a billfold and extended to him wishes for his happiness in the future. Mr. Davey spoke of Mr. Drake's long association with the legal profession here and his courtesy and assistance to its members.

Oswald Barton, deputy registrar, made the presentation of a set of pipes to Mr. Drake on behalf of the members of his office and the Attorney-General's Department.

Mr. Drake replied fittingly, referring to certain of his experiences in office and thanking the assembly for its good wishes and kind remembrance.

ANSWERS ASSAULT APPEAL ARGUMENT

The crown's reply to arguments advanced by appellants' counsel, C. L. McAlpine, K.C., in the appeal of George Brown and Eddie Humphrey was presented to the Court of Appeal here today by M. B. Jackson, K.C.

The pair were found guilty by the Assize Court jury at Williams Lake on a charge of criminal assault on Dora Bob, at Lytton, B.C. Sentence of seven years each was given by Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald.

In his argument yesterday, Mr. McAlpine contended the trial judge had erred in declaring certain evidence inadmissible and had not properly stated the accused defence in his charge to the jury.

Mr. Jackson declared several citations made by appellants' counsel did not hold in the case at bar. He contended the action of the trial judge had been correct in the manner in which he charged the jury.

With the consent of the court, Mr. McAlpine yesterday left the appeal in the hands of R. D. Harvey.

NEW MODEL STUDEBAKERS

Many Noteworthy Features in New Cars

The Studebaker automobiles for 1938, presented to the public here yesterday for the first time, came as a distinct surprise to motorists who keep watch of new models each year.

The new Studebakers are new in the most literal interpretation of the word. They have been built without compromise to tool-and-die amortizing budgets or other previous model hang-over handicaps. The frames are new. The chassis are new. The bodies are new.

The cars were displayed at the showrooms of Jameson Motors Limited, located at 750 Broughton Street. According to Ben Grossman, who directs the local Studebaker selling organization, no previous Studebaker introduction has caused so much favorable comment or enthusiasm.

The 1938 Studebakers are offered in three lines: The President, the Commander and the Six. The President models are powered with 110 horsepower eight-cylinder engines. The Commander and the Six have 90 horsepower six-cylinder engines. The President wheel base is 122 inches, the other two models have 116.5-inch wheelbases. In each group of cars there are coupes, club sedans, cruising sedans and convertible sedans.

News-worthy features of the new models include new frames, bodies that are six inches wider than previous models and the availability of a vacuum-actuated shifting mechanism which is located on the instrument panel. There are many other chassis and engine refinements. General improvements have been made in the bodies, in strengthening the bodies by skilful welding and ingenious shaping of steel.

Motorists, who know automotive mechanics, will readily realize that the Studebaker engineers started from the ground and worked up when it is stated that the President frames are 18 per cent lighter in weight than its predecessor and shows a 70 per cent increase in overall torsional rigidity. The Commander and Six frame is eight pounds lighter and over 300 per cent stronger in overall torsional rigidity. To the layman it should be said that great overall torsional rigidity means safety, strength and "hand-ability." In other words, the frame, as Studebaker has it for 1938, produces a sure-footed, sweet handling automobile.

The secret of the new frame is the straight tie, without offset, of the centre cross member between the frame side members. All twisting or crank action has been eliminated by this engineering.

The new vacuum gear shift, which may be obtained on the new cars, is an interesting result of the industry's desire to eliminate the bothersome shift lever in the front compartment. This new shift utilizes the engine manifold vacuum to actuate the transmission gears. A small shift lever, only five inches long and topped by a knob about the size of a ping pong ball, extends from the instrument panel. This lever does the job of shifting under all conditions. The vacuum power helps its action. It is not necessary to learn any new driving habits in controlling this device.

This control differs from other power-actuated shifting devices in the all-important fact that the gears are under full control of the driver from start to stop. Shifts may be made quickly or slowly. The driver obtains the same "feel" that he does from the conventional type. The car may be pushed to start its engine. Yet the floor boards are cleared.

R.C.M.P. Constable Dies in Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—Ernest Francis Killwyn, special constable attached to the Montreal division of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, collapsed and died on an uptown street Wednesday. A verdict of death from natural causes was returned at the inquest.

Killwyn was born in Queensland, Australia, in 1876, and came to Canada 33 years ago. He started police work in this country in the old preventive service of the Customs and Excise Department at Vancouver in 1924. He was transferred to Montreal in 1932, when the R.C.M.P. absorbed the preventive service.

He is survived by the widow, formerly Mary Ida Victoria Fyfe, and three sons, all of Vancouver.

Tissues taken from an animal's body can be kept alive indefinitely, according to biologists. Microscopic living cells taken from a chicken have outlived the normal life of the fowl.

The minimum height for jumping with the aid of a parachute is considered to be 250 feet, although a parachute will open in slightly less than 150 feet.

The Long Trail He was baffled at every turn, but he went on and on. He knew that if only he could keep going long enough he would finally reach the sea.

He lost all count of time. All he could think of was that moment when he would leave this bewildering expanse and feel the salt tang in his nostrils; it was a moment worth striving for, and his step quickened.

Now his way lay uphill, but his stride remained firm; he felt that any minute now his wanderings would end, his quest prove successful. And, sure enough, soon afterwards he staggered triumphantly from the maze of corridors, shops, pleasure halls, and palm lounges on to the luxury liner's promenade deck.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES

Backed by the Metropolitan United Church schoolroom, a capacity audience from the City Temple and the Metropolitan Societies enjoyed a series of lively impromptu debates with Tom Wilson in the chair.

Convincing the judges that men's clothing styles should undergo a complete change for the sake of health, comfort and beauty, Miss Elsie Findlay and Hing Hope won the judges' decision. Miss Audrey Nixon and George Enoch took a vigorous negative.

In the second debate, the judges could not decide whether or not all schoolboys should learn the correct use of cosmetics. The affirmative was taken by Jack Lacey, and the negative was supported by Miss Grace Beschell.

In a dynamic address, Bud Kirk protested successfully against the abolition of one-armed driving. His opponent, Miss Dora Gascoigne thought that it was a public nuisance and a social menace.

In a moving address, Len Cannon declared that moving pictures should be seen, but not heard. Ed Slater said that they are very beneficial to young people's societies. However, the judges gave the decision to the former.

Pearl Findlay and Dorothy Howard acted as judges.

Following a rousing sing song, George Davis conducted the devotional period. The pianists for the evening were Amy Anderson and Ivy Bowles.

Horses Pull Three Tons At Saanichton

Major Macdonald's Team
Wins in Weight Contest;
Other Results Out

SAANICHTON—So impressed was Lieutenant-Governor Eric W.
Hamber with the Saanich Fair last year that despite many calls he determined to visit the fair again this year.

"It is as great a pleasure now," he said, in declaring the fair officially open yesterday afternoon, "as it was a year ago."

The Lieutenant-Governor said that he had visited many fairs this year and in every locality noted a keen interest in them.

"Local fairs should be encouraged—encouraged to the full,"
he said. "They stimulate production and increase the standard of agriculture. They produce a community spirit. They give women and children a chance to show off those household arts so dear to them."

The Lieutenant-Governor remarked that the Saanich Fair had been going for 69 years. He declared that residents of the district should be proud of its accomplishments and standing in the province.

George T. Michell, president, thanked the people for their support of the fair, in introducing the Lieutenant-Governor. He also called for applause for H. E.
Tanner, past president for the last 15 years.

On the platform with the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs.
Hamber were Captain Macgregor
Macintosh, M.P.P. for the islands;
Mrs. R. Nimmo, Mr. Michell and Mr. Tanner.

there was one of the largest crowds in the history of the fair.
The number of exhibits were said to be up and many new exhibitors were noted by the committee in charge of the show.

One of the feature attractions was the heavyweight pulling contest by teams of draught horses.
This was spectacular, as the horses had to pull a loaded sled on the gravel path just outside the Agricultural Hall.

Huge rocks were not enough weight for the strong animals entered in the contest. The winner, Major Macdonald's team of black animals, pulled the sled, load and six men, a weight estimated by those present as over three tons.

Another interesting event was the sheep dog demonstration by
A. Macfarlane of Coghlin, B.C., and his imported sheep dog.
These animals not only showed remarkable discipline and obedience, but even independent judgment in rounding the sheep into the pens.

This was a non-competitive display. Unfortunately the competitive sheep dog trial for the Tulloch Kennel Cup was not very successful, the two dogs entered failing to qualify.

One of the largest entries of Jerseys in the history of the fair was judged in the ring behind. In some of the classes there appeared to be more animals than were entered in the Victoria Fair.

JERSEY WINNERS

Miss G. E. Moses and Ian Douglas won the main awards. Mr.
Douglas received the Fordham Johnson Challenge Cup for the best dairy herd exhibited while Miss Moses with her champion bulls won the Royal Bank of Canada Cup for the most points scored by any one exhibitor.

Easton and Burkinshaw, who had the champion cow, won the City of Victoria Challenge Cup for the cow with the best R.O.P. record. Douglas Lawson and Muriel Raper were winners in the boys' and girls' competitions.

C. Ecclestone had the champion ram at the show, while Arthur Lock took the other sheep prize with the best ewe.

There was quite a nice little rabbit section. R. Ponsford won the Totem Rabbitry Cup for the best Chinchilla, while Mrs. D. E.
Bayles was awarded the Greenwood Rabbitry Cup for the best white Angora.

In chickens, Arthur Adams's white Leghorn was judged the best male bird, while J. L. Lang's Rhode Island Red was the best female bird.

Mrs. A. L. Wilson scored most points in the flower section, and was awarded the Macintosh Trophy.

H. Pistell won the highly-prized
J. W. Toimie Challenge Cup for the best collection of vegetables at the show, while Phillip Holloway took the George Stewart Cup for the best collection of fruit.
Russell Nunn was adjudged to have the best collection of vegetables in the boys' and girls' class.

Women of the district were many times complimented on their bottled fruits. Mrs. E. Willoughby winning first and third prizes for the best jar of bottled fruit in the show, and Mrs. A. R.
Anderson the second prize. Mrs.
L. H. MacQueen, Royal Oak, and Mrs. A. Deveson, Saanichton, took the prizes for the best loaves, and
Mrs. P. Sherritt won the B.C.
Electric "special" for securing the highest points in household arts.

In the girls' 16-years-and-under household arts, Kathleen Willoughby and Phyllis Deveson secured the layer-cake awards, and Betty Burt and Dorothy Hall
the awards for soda tea cake.

Highland events held the interest of hundreds of spectators throughout the afternoon, the naive twins, Joan and Betty Anderson, in the under-five-year class, being particularly popular among the dancers. There were 26 competitors for the various events, the committee in charge being J. A. Dewar, Pipe-Major Cameron and R. E. Nimmo.

The Story of Glass

IV—Clothing and Electric Bulbs.

Cinderella's glass slippers are just a myth, but once upon a time a glass hat was made! That was in 1878, when a world's fair was held in Paris. In addition to the main part of the hat, there were "ribbons" and "feathers" of glass.

Blowing "Edison's" first electric bulbs.

At the Chicago fair of 1893, a glass dress was displayed. It had been made for the Queen Regent of Spain.

Those are examples of the many things which can be done with glass fibres. With the help of fast-moving wheels, the fibres can be spun from liquid glass. In a medicine bottle large enough to hold half an ounce of water, there is enough glass to spin many miles of thread!

From the glass threads, workers have made all manner of things, including collars, neckties, brushes and lamp-wicks.

As a write these words, I have before me a little bundle of glass fibres, about the size of a powder puff. The fibres feel like silk when I touch them. They are as thin as human hair.

The future of the glass fibre industry is something to wonder about. If the makers can get rid of all "scratching" glass cloth may become very common. Such cloth is strong. It will not burn, and cannot be eaten by moths.

So far, the most important use of glass fibres has been found in the building industry. If placed in the walls of houses, they keep heat and sound from passing through. In other words, glass fibres are good for "insulation."

Look about you while you are inside any building, and you should be able to see many products of glass-makers — window panes, drinking glasses and what not. You probably also will see electric bulbs.

When Edison was testing "filaments" for use in electric lighting, he placed them in bulbs blown from glass. The electric light bulb does not contain air, or at least there is so little air in one that we may call it a "vacuum." That is why we hear a special kind of noise when a bulb is broken.

Today, millions of electric bulbs are made each year. The wonderful thing called glass is used in producing them. Without glass, our homes could not be lighted so cheaply or so well. (For General Interest section of your scrapbook.)

Dan McCowan To Address Club

The speaker for the Women's Canadian Club for Tuesday, October 5, will be Mr. Dan McCowan, Canadian naturalist and photographer. His subject will be: "Snow Peaks and Flower Meadows in the Canadian Rockies."

Mr. McCowan has 200 new lantern pictures to illustrate his lecture, which deals with the natural history and scenic beauty of the Banff-Lake Louise region, and with some of the alpine wonderland lakes and valleys of British Columbia. He says: "In Lake O'Hara your province has one of the most beautiful and charming lakes in the wide world, and yet but few of the residents of B.C. have ever seen it."

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I have a good job paying $1,800 a year, and I would so like to get married, but can I afford it? Life is pleasant for me on my salary. Would it still be pleasant for two on that income? I long for the congenial companionship of a wife, but am afraid our happiness might be restricted on my salary. Several of my college chums are married and seem to be getting along all right, but I often wonder if they are really happy with their economies, their struggle to make the ends meet and with their freedom curtailed. No running around with different girls, no compromising experiences with some of them. Have my married friends found something to replace that?

JACK.

Answer: Well, Jack, whether a young married couple can be happy on $1,800 a year depends altogether on the kind of people they are and their tastes and habits. To many a bride and groom it would seem riches. To others it would be penury.

So before you buy a glory ticket consider well what manner of man you are and what you demand of life. And more particularly, consider the kind of girl you are thinking of marrying and whether she will be able to find happiness in love in a cottage, or will be miserable outside of a de luxe apartment.

Young people in love give far too little thought to the financial side of marriage and that is one of the main reasons why there are so many divorces. A boy and girl who belong to well-to-do families and who have been accustomed all of their lives to comforts and luxuries and easy living marry on a shoestring that breaks as soon as the strain of poverty comes upon it. They think that love is enough, that being together is all they desire and that they can live on bread and cheese and kisses.

But they find out after marriage that they are just as hungry for beefsteak and onions as they were before; that they crave good clothes just as much as they ever did, and that they still want to step out and dance and have good times. When they have to live on stews, go shabby and drop out of their old circles and stay at home because they lack the price, love is likely to make its proverbial getaway.

Nobody is to blame. It is just that human nature is weak and selfish and self-indulgent, and that love can't stand the gaff when it comes to cooking and dish-washing, baby-tending, doing without all the things you have been accustomed to, being torn with anxiety about the rent and where a pair of new shoes are coming from, and nothing to do for an evening but discuss how the bills can be staved off.

The tired, overworked wife in a faded bungalow apron is not as glamorous as she used to be when she was a gay, carefree girl in pink chiffons. Nor does the harassed young husband, whose temper is as frayed as his cuffs, look the romantic hero he was when he could buy himself all the clothes he desired. And so many a disillusioned young couple wonder what made them do it and regret their folly. That is one side of the shield. The other shows many a fine young couple, made of sterner stuff and caring less for the flesh pots, who marry on nothing and live happily ever afterward. They find in their companionship a recompense for everything they miss. They take poverty, deprivations, hardships in their stride because they are walking hand in hand.

DEAR MISS DIX—If women will take their proper station in life, men will propose honorable marriage to them. How they expect men to marry them when they take their jobs away from them is too deep for me.

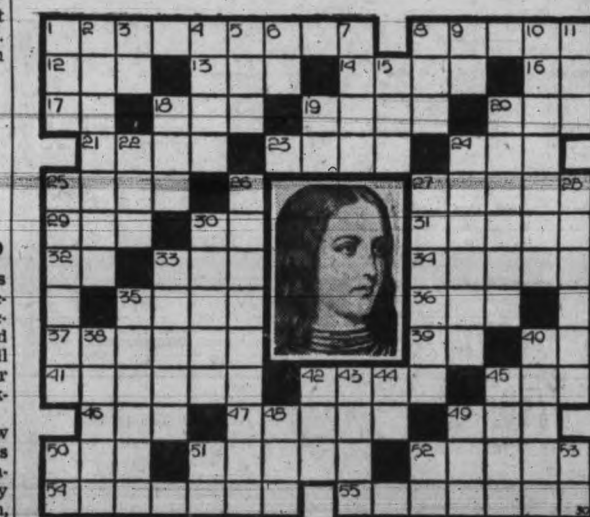

W. S.

Answer: What is woman's proper station in life in a world where we are all born equal and should have an equal chance in the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness? And why is it any worse for a woman to take a man's job away from him than it is for another man to do so? Yet we hear a great cry about women taking men's jobs, but never a pipe about one man taking another's job. And that is too deep for me.

DOROTHY DIX.

HOW TO OVERCOME ITCHING PILES

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from MacFarlan and Vancouver Drug Stores or any druggist, a package of Hemoroid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemoroid is a physician's prescription and is highly recommended. It is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

STRAIN AWFUL IN SHANGHAI

Miss Bernice Austin, in Victoria Today, Tells of Frightening Conditions

"I've tried so hard to forget all I saw—it really was the most dreadful thing," said Miss Bernice Austin, teacher in Shanghai's American School, who reached Victoria this morning by Ss. President Grant.

She had not intended to take her long furlough until next year, but she could see no sense in remaining in Shanghai under present conditions, so she left. Her home is in Chicago.

"There was shooting and the buildings were rattling," she said. "The air was so tense it just seemed to hit you. And worst of all was the dreadful indecision—you never knew what was going to happen and you were always waiting."

"Believe me when I tell you it's a real war; it's not child's play."

"Everything across Soochow Creek is finished. There is not a building left."

"The nerve strain was simply awful—it really was ghastly."

Miss Austin made up for her lack of sleep in Shanghai by sleeping about 18 hours a day all the way across the Pacific on the President Grant.

She lived in French Town, not far from the American School, and only once in six weeks did she go to the business district of Shanghai.

She sailed from Shanghai on the Japanese express liner, Shanghai Maru, to Kobe, where she took the President Grant.

GREAT WELCOME GIVEN U.S. PRESIDENT

BROKE THROUGH ROPES

Crowds stationed outside the docks at Ogden Point broke through ropes and clambered towards his car, a spontaneous cheer going up.

Several persons in wheelchairs occupied vantage points along Dallas Road. Many in the crowds carried American flags. Dallas Road was congested with cars for half an hour after the Presidential cars passed.

As the boats drew alongside Pier A, Ogden Point Docks, assembled crowds cheered.

The official welcoming party went aboard the Phelps to tender their felicitations to the President. His Honor Lieutenant-Governor E. W. Hamber headed the group with Premier Pattullo; Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance; Commander C. T. Beard, R.C.N., representing the Governor-General; G. G. McGeer, M.P., representing Prime Minister Mackenzie King; Brigadier-General D. J. MacDonald, representing the Minister of National Defence; Mayor Andrew McGavin of Victoria, Mayor George Miller of Vancouver, John K. Davis, U.S. Consul-General for western Canada. A delightful informality marked the whole affair. Top hats were noticeable by their general absence.

The welcoming party returned to the dock, going into the warehouse. Then as the president and his family came off the gang-plank, a full salute of 21 guns boomed out from Work Point.

MET OFFICIALS

The President was presented to the members of the provincial cabinet and the City Council and their wives.

Mrs. Roosevelt was the recipient of a handsome bouquet of flowers presented by Mrs. W. Ellis for the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E.

After these formalities the party took their places in cars for the procession, the President riding in an open car with Lieutenant-Governor Hamber.

As the cavalcade left the dock the President's car drew up opposite a guard of honor, consisting of two officers and 50 ratings of the Royal Canadian navy, and one officer and 50 other ranks of the Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry. The Fifth B.C. Coast Brigade band played the United States national anthem.

The procession then set out for Government House. Chief of Police Heatley led the way with a motorcycle escort.

IN OFFICIAL CARS

The occupants of the cars, in order, were as follows: Second car, the President and the Lieutenant-Governor; third car, secret service attendants; fourth car, Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Hamber and Premier Pattullo; fifth car, Mr. and Mrs. John Boettiger, the President's son-in-law and daughter, with her two children, Eleanor and Curtis Dall; Commander Beard and Mr. McGeer; sixth car, Mr. Davis and Mrs. Roosevelt, Mr. Davis and Brigadier-General MacDonald; seventh car, Marvin McIntyre, the President's secretary; Col. E. N. Watson, his military aide; Admiral Edward Fennell, U.S.N., his naval aide; Mayor McGavin and Mayor Miller; eighth car, Dr. Ross T. McIntyre, the President's personal physician; Miss Margaret LeHand, his private secretary, and Hon. John Hart and Mrs. Hart; ninth car, Miss Grace Tully and Miss R. Barrows of the White House staff.

Mrs. Davis, wife of the consul-general, and Mrs. McGeer; tenth car, Mrs. M. A. Schneider, Mrs. Roosevelt's secretary; Miss Nancy Cook, Mrs. McGavin and Mrs. Miller. Heads of the British Columbia police and cars with the visiting press representatives followed.

All along the route the President was loudly acclaimed and acknowledged the welcome with broad smiles and waves of his hand.

The route taken to Government House was along Dallas Road to Menzies, along Menzies to Belleville, through Parliament Square, along Government Street to Yates Street, up Yates to Vancouver, along Vancouver to Rockland and up Rockland to Government House.

Business ceased in the centre of the city as the procession passed and store employees flocked to the sidewalks to see the distinguished visitors.

After luncheon at a private party with the Lieutenant-Governor and heads of the government the President was taken on a drive of the city back to the dock.

At 3 o'clock the destroyers steamed out for Port Angeles to the accompaniment of a farewell salute from Work Point.

Small Decrease in Births Is Reported

Cargo Discharged From U.S. Vessel

V.L.A. Unload 1,100 Tons of Freight From Ss. President Grant Today

Without trouble, and for only the second time in many months, cargo rolled from the American Mail liner President Grant at the Rithet piers this morning.

The crew of the ship had been advised by Seattle headquarters of its union to "let Victoria alone," and provide steam for discharging the freight.

Members of the Victoria Longshoremen's Union did the work. For five hours over 100 men worked on the docks, handling 1,100 measurement tons of general freight from the Orient.

A few weeks ago the local branch of the International Longshoremen's Association discharged a President ship at Victoria.

The V.L.A. then told Rithet Consolidated Limited that if I.L.A. members were allowed to work on its docks, they (the V.L.A.) would not work other ships berthing there.

Today's settlement followed weeks of negotiations between operators of the American Mail Line, opposing groups of longshoremen, dock officials and members of the City Council.

The Grant docked at 7 and left shortly after noon for Seattle.

Ss. Princess Joan then went around to the Outer Docks and loaded a large amount of the cargo discharged by the Grant. It will be sent across Canada by rail.

DOWN THE GANGWAY

President Grant in With Refugees From China—Chinese Students Aboard—Duncan Woman Glad to Leave China—No Russians in Chinese Air Force.

Ss. President Grant of the American Mail Line, reached the Rithet piers early this morning from Orient ports, carrying more than 400 passengers.

Among them were 114 Chinese students en route to various colleges and universities in the United States were among her passengers. They spent the morning in Victoria and went sight-seeing.

There were also a large number of refugees from China, including 125 women, wives and mothers of United States Navy officers, and 55 children, evacuated from Chefoo and Tientsin. The American government would not be responsible for their safety in China and ordered them home.

GLAD TO BE BACK

Mrs. H. D. Adams and her seven-year-old son, Herbert, arrived by the President Grant to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Harris in Duncan. She was formerly Miss Hazel Harris of the up-Island town. Her husband is a navy officer and they were in Chefoo when trouble started. So they were evacuated to Kobe by the transport Gold Star.

"We saw no actual fighting, but they were preparing for it," Mrs. Adams said. "There were trenches being built and we saw lots of machine guns."

Mrs. Adams is delighted to be back in North America after a year in China. She said she did not care for the life there. Her small boy was not well, missing the air and the good food of this continent.

PRAISES CHINESE

China has no Russian aviators or Russian planes, said J. M. Holland, former engineer adviser to the Chinese Air Force, who was an interesting arrival by the President Grant.

"There are more Chinese pilots than Chinese planes," he said. "The Nanking government has been training its force for the last five years. I think the Chinese airmen have done remarkably well. They are better combat fliers than the Japanese."

"Had foreign pilots been engaged by the Chinese government, I am certain they would have bombed Japanese cities. The Chinese fliers are very capable, and I am surprised they have not brought the horrors of bombing raids right to Japan."

CHILDREN NOT AFRAID

"I wasn't particularly worried about myself, but I was terrified for the children," said Mrs. C. M. Plunadore, who arrived from Shanghai with her two little girls.

"Those air raids were awful. I would hear a plane, and then I couldn't find the girls. I had to round them up, bring them inside and almost lock them in. They were frightened at first, but after a while I think they liked it and they always went out to watch the planes. For me it was a horror."

Among the Grant's passengers were: Mrs. J. W. Daugherty, I. Perez Fernandez, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gotschevich, Dr. and Mrs. R. Loewenberg, Sister Anrilla Grogger, Dr. H. H. Martin, Mrs. J. M. McCune, Mrs. E. D. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morris, Mrs. R. R. Murdock, Mrs. W. Nelson, Mrs. Carl Overy, Capt. B. Schreiber, Mrs. M. C. Schroeder, Mrs. L. F. Scott, Dr. and Mrs. A. U. Simpson, Mrs. G. D. Shine, Mrs. S. J. Swiderski and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Johnson.

LONDON POST LOSES IDENTITY

City's Oldest Daily Absorbed By Daily Telegraph As From October 1

LONDON (CP)—Fleet Street was in reflective mood today and probably more newspapermen read The Morning Post than for many days past.

The death of any newspaper arouses the most real emotions and the death of the oldest London daily, which since 1772 has championed Conservatism and upheld good taste, came as an expected but regretted occasion.

Coleridge, Lamb, Southey, Wordsworth, Disraeli, George Meredith—these were of The Morning Post past, but the frock-coated, top-hatted journalism of the 19th century held small strength in the trying days of 1931 and since, when the depression almost caused the journal to collapse.

Its circulation recently was reported to be 120,000, insufficient to cope with the mass volume of the popular press of Great Britain today.

STEADFAST IN DEFENCE
But to the last The Morning Post did not relent in dignified defence of its principles.

The London Daily Telegraph, Conservative in its affiliation, has purchased and is embracing the Post. From tomorrow the combined paper will be published under the name of Daily Telegraph and Morning Post. It will be under the control of Lord Camrose, editor-in-chief and principal proprietor of the Telegraph for the past 10 years.

The Morning Post recorded the United States Declaration of Independence, the guillotining of the King and Queen during the French Revolution, and Admiral Nelson's victory over the French in the Battle of Trafalgar.

(The Daily Telegraph today had a picturesque description of the Post. "Its disdain of compromise was magnificent," the editorial said, to which view virtually every British paper today subscribed.

The London Times spoke of the Post and of freedom from interference, the right to free comment within the limits of the law of libel, and development of literary style.

The London Daily Express, with its nearly 3,000,000 circulation, acknowledged the Post's "language was clear and forthright, with the strength of a beautiful blade; its spirit proud and independent.... It never feared."

The London News-Chronicle deplored the disappearance of a great independent journal although it rarely agreed with its opinions. "But," it added, "the very existence side by side in free England of two such widely different organs was a measure of freedom's value."

BYRON NELSON WINS TOURNEY

Defeats Henry Picard 5 and 4 in Final of $12,000 Belmont Open

BELMONT, Mass.—Byron Nelson, Reading, Tuesday proved to be a better mudder than Henry Picard, Hershey, his Pennsylvania professional golfing neighbor and Ryder Cup teammate, as he scheduled a 5 and 4 victory in the $12,000 Belmont Open match play tournament.

With three-fifths of the $5,000 finalists' purse at stake, Nelson, whose only previous important 1937 victory was at the Augusta (Ga.) National Invitation Tourney, twice beat back two-hole deficits during his morning round. He then spurred to victory by winning five of the first eight afternoon holes, while going under the 6,517-yard course par of 71 for his 32 holes. Nelson and Picard were all even at 71 after their first 18.

Rain is the bane of Picard's competitive career, and when he drove off in a pelting storm after lunch, the downpour plagued his only weakness, his tee shots. During his 14 holes against Nelson, Picard whacked at least half of his drives into the rough.

Both completed their morning rounds with scores of 71, but Nelson was one under for his last 15 and Picard wound up five over, after losing five of the first eight afternoon holes.
